COAL MINE HOLIDAY BRINGS RIOTING

SIXTEEN MEN SHOT AND MANY BEATEN AT THREE MINES

HEAVILY ARMED DEPUTY SHERIFFS FIRE INTO CROWD OF DETERMINED PICKETS

HARRISBURG, Pa., Sept. 14.—(AP)—Marching orders for two battalions of national guardsmen were drafted hurriedly and secretly today as Governor Pinchot moved quietly with plans to place the Fayette county soft coal district under virtual martial law for the second time in ten weeks.

While attaches of the governor's office, after talking by telephone with the governor in Washington, said Pinchot had made no decision on his plan of action, arrangements for mobilizing the national guard went forward.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., Sept. 14.—(AP)—Sixteen men were shot and more than a score beaten and stoned today as rioting at three mines signalized the official start of a mining "holiday" in the Southwestern Pennsylvania soft coal field.

The trouble flared at the Gates, Edenborn and Footendale mines, all owned by the H. C. Frick Coke company, as pickets tried to prevent men from entering the pits.

The most serious clash was at the Gates mine. It was there that all 16 were shot.

Pickets were reported to have stoned miners going to work. Deputy Sheriffs, heavily armed, got into an argument with Louis Kromer and one of them pushed him. As other pickets advanced the deputies opened fire.

Mike Cutwright, a deputy, got in front of a fellow officer's gun, pickets said, and his left arm was blown off.

In addition to Kromer, a leader in the strike movement, and Cutwright, the other wounded are Steve Hrosky, Steve Ondosh, George Ely, Anton Maura, Walter Ordonsky, Paul Popson, Mason Roberts, George Hroska, Joe Goletz, Mike Budman, James Shannon Joe Kromer, Illeg and Vincent Stunga.

After the outbreak, the ground was strewn with wounded. Ambulances sped to the scene and the casualties were brought to a hospital.

At Edenborn, John Garrow, 40, suffered a broken arm and a fractures skull during a two-hour riot. Mike Savage, 46, has a broken arm and lacerated head. Both were hurt while trying to prevent men from entering the mine. A score of others were injured less seriously at Edenborn.

John Cochran, 35, and several other pickets were clubbed and stoned at Footendale.

Claimed Superintendent Ordered Fire.

After the excitement at Gates quieted down, Thomas Vidovich,

CHAMPION WAS TWO DOWN AT HALF WAY POINT ON THURSDAY

YOUNG JACK MUNGER OF DALLAS WAS TWO UP ON JACK WESTLAND AT HALF

KENWOOD COUNTRY CLUB, Cincinnati, Sept. 14.—(AP)—Fighting another battle against elimination, Ross "Sandy" Somerville, Canadian holder of the title, was two down to William Lawson Little, Jr., 22-year-old San Franciscan today after the first 18 holes of their 36-hole quarterfinal match in the United States amateur golf championships.

George T. Dunlap, Jr., of New York, Walker Cup star, gained the biggest lead of the morning competition by finishing the 18 holes three up on Eddie Held, his rival from the metropolitan district.

In the upper half of the draw, 18-year-old Jack Munger of Dallas furnished another surprise by gaining a lead of two up on Jack Westland of Chicago, the 1931 runner up, while Sidney W. Noyes, Jr., New York youngster, fought his way back to even terms with Max Marston, veteran former champion from Philadelphia, in the most spectacular duel of the morning.

Noyes, three down with five to play, finished the last nine holes

LOUISIANA CONVICTS BATTLED THEIR WAY INTO EASTERN TEXAS

SEVEN DEATHS HAVE RESULTED FROM SUNDAY PRISON BREAK AT ANGOLA

MARKSVILLE, La., Sept. 14.—(AP)—Texas officers today took up armed search for four Louisiana convicts who were among the twelve desperadoes who last Sunday shot their way out of the Louisiana Angola prison farm and for four days carried on a battle siege through Central Louisiana that has caused seven slayings.

After stealing motor cars in relays, kidnaping passengers, looting stores and terrorizing the crossroads through the central tier of Louisiana parishes, this remnant group about midnight blazed their trail with guns through Vernon Parish, La., across the state line into East Texas and evaded two automobile loads of Louisiana officers who were close on their heels.

At Sabine River, which separates the two states, the band, armed with guns they obtained in a raid on the prison store room, kidnaped L. C. Lenahen, ferryman at Hadden's Ferry southeast of Leesville and carried him along into Texas. After being taken several miles into Texas, Lenahen was dumped out and the bandits sped on in the general direction of Newton, Texas, Lenahen walked back to his ferry and reported his abduction to E. A.

Beer Is Legal In Texas After Twelve Tonight

AUSTIN, Sept. 14.—(AP)—Beer can flow legally in Texas at the stroke of 12 tonight. For the first time in 14 years in this state, long considered a stanch prohibition commonwealth, beverages containing more than one per cent of alcohol can be handled. Now it will be lawful to manufacture, sell, possess and transport 3.2 per cent beer and wine.

Texas long has had one of the most stringent prohibition laws on the books of any state. It has been a penitentiary offense to possess, manufacture, transport or sell liquor more powerful than one per cent.

Elbert Hooper, first assistant attorney general, has ruled that under Texas' new law regulating the sale of 3.2 per cent beer it will be permissible to transport beverages of no greater strength than that into political subdivisions that are dry under local option. Under his interpretation of the law a resident of a subdivision that has voted to bar the sale of beer can send his remittance to a dealer in a wet community and have a shipment of the beverage consigned to him.

Texans voted overwhelmingly in a special election on August 27 to permit the manufacture and sale of 3.2 per cent beverages in communities within the state that had not, through local option, barred it.

Since before the vote on the proposition to amend the constitution 3.2 beer has been sold openly under federal permit, in many Texas cities and towns.

PRESIDENT TAKES STRONG HAND FOR RECOVERY PROGRAM

AMPLE CREDIT FOR BUSINESS AND AGRICULTURE WILL BE PROVIDED

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—(AP)—President Roosevelt summoned NRA leaders to the white house this afternoon to dispatch the disputed coal code.

The views of Hugh S. Johnson, the chief administrator, had been communicated here from New York.

Earlier the president had ordered special agents to Uniontown to investigate the disorders there in which 16 miners were shot.

Although operators, union men and NRA officers had kept at work on the code after weeks of delay, there was no sign of immediate agreement.

So, it appeared, the president felt spurred by the Pennsylvania strike and troubles to get into the situation himself, and with a readiness if need be to prescribe a new working agreement for the bituminous industry.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—(AP)—President Roosevelt today imparted to his National Recovery drive the vigorous pressure of his own determination to provide quickly more jobs and better prices.

Ample credit for business and agriculture by seeking immediately the reopening of banks now closed or restricted was a major objective of the chief executive as he looked especially toward sluggish farm prices.

Somewhat impatiently he looked forward to an agreement between soft coal operators and miners on the long-disputed NRA Code for this basic industry.

Eagerly, too, the President awaited receipt of an agreement between the NRA labor and industrial advisory boards which is intended to moderate, if not finally settle, conflicts over the collective bargaining provisions of the recovery law.

With today's return to the capital of Hugh S. Johnson, industrial administrator, Mr. Roosevelt was expected to proffer such force as his aides deem necessary for faster co-ordination and stim-

Gasoline Price War Rumored Be Started Texas

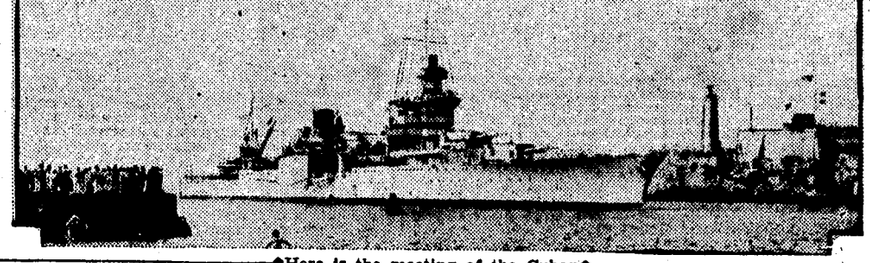

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—(AP)—Reports that a gasoline price war was spreading from California to Washington, Oregon and Texas were considered today by the oil planning committee.

Secretary Ices has not yet acted on price fixing, pending a check on information that the "price war" may not be as serious as first reported. It was held necessary, however, in semi-official quarters to fix prices quickly in order to prevent price cutting.

The oil committee also considered reports that W. S. S. Rogers, president of the Texas company, had declined to furnish it with information on operating and cost data.

Here is the meeting of the Cuban Revolutionary Junta which resulted in the selection of one of its members, Dr. Ramon Grau San Martin, as provisional president of the turbulent republic. NEW PRESIDENT OF CUBA EXPECTED ASK DICTATORIAL POWER

BELIEVED THIS WILL BE NECESSARY IN ORDER TO TO COMBAT DISORDERS

By JOHN P. McKNIGHT

HAVANA, Sept. 14.—(AP)—President Grau San Martin worked today on a manifesto in which his confidants expected him to demand dictatorial powers for combatting disorders.

Opposed by veteran political leaders, plagued by labor troubles, and unable to pacify 500 officers who insist his predecessor be reinstated, the executive was said in Palace circles to be ready to cite state reasons for iron hand policies.

Police reserves, meanwhile, were held in readiness here. They were armed with rifles but no reason for the action was announced.

At the same time rumors circulated that the army faces dissension in its ranks. Two soldiers died violent deaths in the last 24 hours, one a suicide and the other the victim of unidentified machine gunners.

Several unidentified persons attacked the ninth police station and gravely wounded a student on duty there.

Strikes continued in Antilla, Baguanos, Tacajo, Cristo, and other Oriente province towns with unrest prevalent.

Those who believed the executive will establish a dictatorship pointed out that his revolutionary cabinet included nobody who participated in earlier mediation efforts, and backed by students, had embarked on an intensely nationalistic course.

Official pronouncements have attached primary importance to public order and Secretary of State Hull has said American

World Series to Open October 3 At Polo Grounds

CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—(AP)—The world's series of 1933 will open on Tuesday, Oct. 3, in the city winning the National league championship, presumably New York.

This was decided today at a metting presided over by Kenesaw Mountain Landis, commissioner of baseball.

If the Giants win the National league flag, games will be played at the Polo Grounds, New York, Oct. 3 and 4, with the teams playing in Washington, the probable American league pennant winner, Oct. 5, 6 and 7. Should additional games be necessary, they will be played in New York on the following Sunday and Monday.

All games will start at 1:30 p. m. eastern standard time.

Twenty-three members of the Giants, with two coaches, and the same number of the Senators, also with two coaches, were named as eligible to compete in the series.

There will be no reduction in the price of tickets. The choice box seats will sell for $6.60 each, as in former years.

Those attending the meeting with Commissioner Landis were Edward B. Eynon, secretary of the Washington club; James Tierney, secretary of the New York Giants and William L. Veeck, president of the Chicago Cubs, National league champions for 1932, who still have a slim chance of beating out the Giants.

If either the Cubs or Pirates win the National league championship, the series will open in Chicago or Pittsburgh Wednesday, October 4, with the second game to be played the following day. If Pittsburgh wins, it's game at Washington will be played Friday, Saturday and Sunday, if the Cubs win, an extra day will be provided for traveling time, the games at Washington being scheduled for Saturday, Sunday and Monday.

QUORUMS PRESENT IN BOTH HOUSES AT NOON ON THURSDAY

TWO MATTERS PERTAINING TO RECOVERY PROGRAM ARE OBJECTS OF CALL

AUSTIN, Sept. 14.—(AP)—The first special session of the Texas legislature convened at noon today prepared to consider matters pertaining to this state's part in the president's national recovery plan.

Members of both houses responded with quorums to Governor Miriam A. Ferguson's call, which listed two main legislative topics: One to authorize and direct administration of up to $20,000,000 in money for relief, and liberalization of the state's anti-trust laws to give business and industry a broader chance to benefit from the president's recovery progvam.

Both subjects were likely to create controversy. There was a divergence of opinion as to how a bond issue money should be spent, how much and by whom administered. James V. Allred, attorney general, had not shown any particular friendliness for legislation that would alter existing laws against trusts and monopolies. He was waiting to study proposed legislation on this subject before committing himself.

Governor Ferguson had her message written, but it had not been decided whether it would be imparted to the legislators before tomorrow. There were certain routine organization preliminaries that the legislature had to get through.

The senate chamber and the hall of representatives were crowded with persons who were seeking clerical or stenographic work with the legislature. The galleries held hundreds of spectators.

Speaker Coke Stevenson of Junction called the house to order and Lieutenant Governor Edgar Witt of Waco presided in the senate.

Expect Other Subjects.

Legislators expected several additional subjects to be presented as the session progresses. Advent of the legal sale of beer tonight presented a likely topic for new laws. The regular session passed a regulatory law, anticipating the electorate would vote to legalize 3.2 but some changes were likely to be proposed.

Texas' new boxing law, effective on September 1 after the sport had been outlawed since 1895, already had stirred some of those interested in boxing and wrestling to complain that it was not being fairly administered. The law empowered the state labor commissioner to apply the statute. Jack Flynn, present labor commissioner, has been in "hot water" almost continuously since the boxers and wrestlers became his "charges."

As the session started there was agitation for outright repeal or an amendment to set up a boxing and

WARM SESSION OF TEXAS LEGISLATURE BELIEVED CERTAIN

CONTROVERSIAL SUBJECTS EXPECTED KEEP SOLONS IN HOT WATER

BY CHARLES E. SIMONS
(Associated Press Staff Writer.)

AUSTIN,, Sept. 14. (AP)—The 43rd Texas legislature was ready today to start its first special session, with predictions that it would develop considerable warmth before the 30-day period expired because of controversial subjects.

Gov. Miriam A. Ferguson called the legislature to convene at noon. Many members arrived early and were ready for business. The usual quota of job hunters and lobbyists was in evidence.

Chief among the legislation to be considered was issuance of state relief bonds and enactment of a law prescribing how the funds should be expended. The legislature was authorized at a special election August 26 to issue up to $20,000,000 in bonds to aid in unemployment relief.

The second major subject, and the one likely to provoke acrimonious discussion, was liberalization of the anti-trust laws, advocated as necessary to allow Texas industries to take full advantage of the national recovery program.

Revision of the law regulating the manufacture and sale of beer, readjustment of salaries of state employes and a change in the box-

SOME IMPROVEMENT IS NOTED IN SHIPPING CIRCLES BUT NO BIG BUSINESS YET REPORTED

By DONALD C. BOLLES.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—(AP)—The improvement noted in recent months in the condition of an economically sick world has brought a little business to the steamship lines of the country.

The improvement has given shipping company officials little to cheer about as they scan reports showing freight traffic running substantially below the level of a year ago and fewer folks traveling across the water.

The firm hand of the federal government, which on June 1, assumed control of the intercoastal shipping following passage of a law by congress, has brightened the outlook in that quarter, ending as it did the costly rate wars that left a blight on the shipping business. New vessels have been put in service on several coastal and intercoastal lines this year in an effort to improve service.

Another year of large losses by transatlantic shipping companies is believed inevitable as a result of the poor response made to their efforts to stimulate travel. Attractive rates for week-end and other short cruises during the summer months helped some. Steamship officials report, but this added little to the net operating revenues.

The bright spot in the industry is the section serving Great Lakes, domestic coastal and contiguous islands. These have felt the stimulating effect of general business recovery in the United States and most of the companies may once more write the net result of the year's business in black ink.

Former Dallas Philanthropist Is Under Indictment

DENVER, Sept. 14.—(AP)—I. Rude, Denver and Dallas business man and philanthropist, was under federal indictment today as an alleged swindler.

Rude, now in the tailoring business here, was one of 112 persons named in true bills returned by a federal grand jury here last night. He and his partner, Michael Heller, are accused of using the mails to defraud through sale of misrepresented goods.

The government, District Attorney Thomas J. Morrissey said, claims Rude and Heller represented their firm as having for sale goods on which deposits had been paid. These suits, it was claimed, were offered for cost less the supposed deposit. In actuality, Morrissey declared, the suits were shoddy, worth about $3.50 and not of the same materials as samples submitted to purchasers through the mail.

Rude, who endowed the spacious B'Nai B'Rith-I. Rude community center here, recently returned from Dallas where he has been in business for several years.

Easterwood Will Fight For King And Mussolini

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—(AP)—Colonel W. E. Easterwood of Dallas, Texas, vice commander of the American Legion, landed from the liner Rex today ready to do battle with critics of his action in making King Victor Emanuel of Italy and Premier Mussolini honorary Legion members.

"I learned", Colonel Easterwood said, "that Premier Mussolini has been taking care of 4,000 American Veterans, now living in Italy—Italians who were with the American expeditionary forces—and if that doesnt' make him and the King eligible, then I'd like to know what does."

If the Legion will not sustain him in extending "honorary membership," he averred, then he will work to make the king and the Premier life members and stand the $1,000 fee for each out of his own pocet.

Easterwood went to Italy to invite them to attend the American Legion convenion in Chicago, October 3 to 6.

What interested Mussolini most, Easterwood said, was Texas and Governor "Ma" Ferguson. He appeared to consider a woman governor incredible.

SENATOR HUEY LONG TO FIND OUT ADMINISTRATION TAKING HIM AT WORD ON PATRONAGE

BY CLARENCE W. WRIGHT
(Associated Press Staff Writer.)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—(AP)—Senator Huey Long knows and will find out even more positively very soon that the administration is taking him at his word—his word being that "they can take their patronage and go to hell with it."

HUEY P. LONG

In 10 days at the outside, President Roosevelt likely will announce the men he has selected to be United States district attorney and collector of internal revenue in Louisiana. There are very strong indications that they won't be Long men. The administration expects to follow one of the senator's own maxim's that the politically restless deserve no pie.

The preliminary investigations has been completed for at least one of the two posts. The papers await Mr. Roosevelt's approval. The other will be along shortly.

These new appointees, say the job dispensers, will not be warm friends of the Louisiana senator. They assigned a number of reasons, among them his Milwaukee speech to Veterans of Foreign Wars in which he discussed hell and patronage.

Thus, the senator's batting average on big federal jobs in Louisiana won't be much above a blank. Yesterday, for instance, the president named an assayer for the New Orleans mint. But he wasn't even from New Orleans—he was Hugh T. Rippeto of Salt Lake City.

Several months ago, Paul B. Habans was chosen to run the home loan bank branch in Louisiana. He is classed here as "anti-Long." Then Edward Rightor, Walter Burke, James E. Smitherman and James M. Thompson were appointed to the state's public works board.

The first three, leading democrats here say, are against Long. They concede that Thompson has been somewhat friendly toward the senator but point out, too, that he is brother-in-law to Bennet Champ Clark, democratic senator from Missouri.

"No outright Long man has been named to any big job," said an official who asked that his name not be used. "And if you want to make a perfectly safe forecast, you can say that none will be."

Texas Company Denies Refusal Give Cost Data

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—(AP)—C. B. Ames, chairman of the Texas company, denied today the statement by E. B. Reeser, member of the planning committee on oil, that the concern had refused to submit to the group operating and cost data it had requested informally.

In a telegram to Harold Ickes, secretary of the interior and directing operations of the oil code, Ames, a foe of governmental price fixing, said:

"Notwithstanding our convictions on price fixing we are prepared to give you or the committee any facts within our possession relative to this or any other subject but are unwilling to participate in framing a price schedule by the expression of opinions as distinguished from facts."

Reeser was quoted yesterday as saying W. S. Rodgers, president of Texas, had informed him the concern would not supply the information requested.

MURRAY THREATENS TO CALL OUT TROOPS TO STOP PLANNED RED RIVER DAM CONSTRUCTION

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 14.—(AP)—Gov. William H. (Alfalfa Bill) Murray of Oklahoma, who once used National guardsmen to stop travel across a Red River bridge threatens to call troops out again if an attempt is made to erect the proposed $36,000,000 dam across the Red River.

Despite the governor's determined opposition, congressmen from Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Louisiana who favor the plan are pressing for approval of the project by Secretary Ickes and its construction as part of the $3,300,000,000 public works program.

The proposed dam would be more than two miles long and 170 feet high, forming a lake 275 square miles in area—160 miles long and 22 miles wide at the widest point, with an average depth of 50 feet.

"It's the dream of a diseased mind," Governor Murray is said to have snorted when informed that the Texas delegation in congress had recommended the project to Secretary Ickes.

"That dam would ruin 100 miles of good farm land. I'll call out the troops before I'll let them build it!"

Proponents of the plan contend it would (1) go far toward solving the Mississippi Valley flood problem, which several times has been aggravated by the Red River; (2) Make the Red River navigable to Denison, Texas, benefiting shippers; (3) provide irrigation for hundreds of thousands of acres of land that could be made to grow good crops; (4) pay for itself over a period of 60 years through sale of electric power,

OIL FIELDS IN CORSICANA AREA UNDER PRORATION

ORDERS AFFECTING PRODUCTION VARIOUS DEPTHS ANNOUNCED WEDNESDAY

Oil fields in the Corsicana sector were affected by proration rulings for the first time this week following the setting of a new allowable by the federal authorities to F. H. Pierson, chief investigator for the oil and gas division of the Texas railroad commission and former deputy supervisor in this area.

Under the order recently issued by the commission, wells in this area producing from less than 2,000 feet are allowed to make ten barrels of oil daily, and no reductions are provided for this class for few are making more than that amount; in the next class from 2,000 to 4,000 feet, wells are allowed to make 20 barrels daily with a twenty-five per cent in production for wells making more than 20 barrels.

Mr. Pierson stated that this order would be in force until the new order is promulgated following the statewide hearing in Austin on Saturday. The new federal allowance is 975,200 barrels, while Texas was formerly running 1,260,000 barrels.

The chief investigator was busy in Corsicana notifying local producers of the change in allowables, assisted by Assistant Deputy Supervisor W. P. Wood. Mr. Pierson left Corsicana Wednesday afternoon for Dallas and will go to Austin Friday to prepare for the hearing on Saturday.

Life of Departed Woman Is Praised

The following has been handed in with the request for its publication:

"As we lost our friends from sight,
How grows our store in Paradise."

What a comfort to us the assurance that those whose lives were consecrated to the servce of God, who have passed on into the higher, eternal life, are links that bind us to the heavenly home—with these, there exists in our hearts a friendship that lasts into the life beyond for love is eternal.

May these lines bring comfort to the family of our recently departed friend, Mrs. Sibbie Alice Smith, whose gentle nature and christian graces won the love of all who were associated with her.

"How beautiful to be with God
When earth is fading like a dream,
And from this mist-encircled shore
We launch upon the unknown stream.

No doubt, no fear, no anxious care,
But comforted by staff and rod,
In the faith-brightened hour of death
How beautiful to be with God.

Then let it fade, this dream of earth
When I have done my life's work here,
Long, or short, as seemeth best—
What matters, so God will appear?

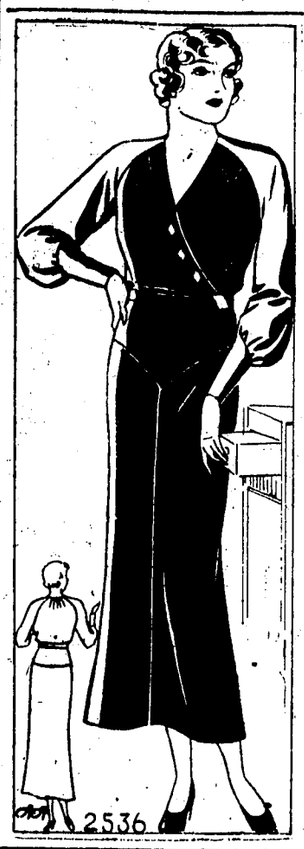

I will not fear to launch my bark
Upon the darkly rolling flood,
'Tis but to pierce the mist—and then
How beautiful to be with God."

A FRIEND.

MYSTERIES OF SOLOMON ARE STILL POTENT IN NEAR EAST *

Lure of Splendid Name of Sage and Sovereign a Present Power In Life of Orientals—The Wisest Man and His Follies—Existing Relics of Solomon—Masonic Meetings Underground.

By WILLIAM T. ELLIS

Recently, a gorgeously-clad envoy from Abyssinia visited Washington, the son-in-law of King Sessie I, who claims descent from Solomon and the Queen of Sheba. Solomon's is still a name of pride and power in the Near East. The talk of the common people is full of allusions to his magic, and the "secrets" of Soloman are many, as employed by native fortune-tellers and dealers in magic. Evil spirits are to this day adjured by his name. His wisdom, his wealth, his magnificence, have held the popular imagination throughout the ages more vividly than those of Alexander the Great, or any of the kings of Persia, Babylon, Egypt or Rome. As the local saying is, Solomon's "na meis big" in the lands once affected by his sway. Not long ago, in the Sudan, I met a mining engineer hot on the trail of King Solomon's mines.

Traces of Solomon in the Holy Land are more numerous than those of any other Hebrew king. The reservoirs that he built still supply Jerusalem with water. His magnificent stables at Mebiddo have recently been excavated by American archaeologists. Most impressive of all are the quarries of Soloman, extending for under the city of Jerusalem, whence the stone for the building of the Temple were dug and shaped, than no sound of hammer might be heard in the building itself.

In this fascinating quarry, I have seen what is called "the first keystone," fully fashioned, but never detached from the mother rock. Visiting members of the Masonic Order, who honor Solomon as a founder, frequently hold meetings in this eerie underground quarry.

Thwarting A Palace Intrigue.

A meaty, absorbing story, well worth anybody's careful reading, are these eight chapters of the Book of Kings which constitute today's Lesson material. They are biography, lighted by philosophy, religion and human interest. Uncounted authors have quarried from this source their expanded tales. Some passages are as oriental as anything in the Arabian Nights; some rise to New Testament height of religious grandeur.

Solomon was born to the purple, with all the advantages and disadvantages of life in an oriental royal harem. He was closer to his mother, Bathsheba, than to his father, David. In King David's dotage, a palace conspiracy, headed by Phince Adonijah, sought to capture the throne. Counter intrigue and quick action, with Bathsheba and Nathan bearing the principal parts, led King David to announce the inmmediate coronation of Solomon, thus thwarting the plot of Adonijah.

Dr. Wayland Hoyt used to preach a great sermon on this incident, his theme being "Crown Solomon" Affirmative action is the best way to meet danger. When life's throne is threatened by temptation, crown the rightful occupant; thwart the Adonijah's of idleness, passion, avarice, fear and materialism by enthroning the Solomon of righteousness, religion noble thoughts and selfless service. Dr. Chalmers embodied the same idea in his deathless phrase "the expulsive power of a new affection."

Our Times and Solomon's

Solomon inherited the throne, and the promises of God to his father. The dying king laid solemn admonition upon his son to be true to Jehovah and to the Divine Law. These last words of David have a pertinency today to every sovereign citizen, in a time of decision and destiny.

"Be thou strong, therefore, and show thyself a man; and keep the charge of Jehovah thy God, to walk in His ways, to keep His statutes, and His commandments, and His ordinances, and His testimonies, according to that which is written in the law of Moses, that thou mayst prosper in all that thou doest, and whithersoever thou turnest thyself."

There we have a program of national greatness. Any other plan that is not built upon this foundation, will prove inadequate in any country. No national problem can be solved which leaves out God as the determining factor. That is why a genuine revival of real religion is our day's deepset need.

A King's Choice.

In htose first days of his reign, days of mental ferment and spiritual fervor, Solomon went to Gibeon to offer a great sacrifice. There God appeared to him in a dream, and offered him a choice of blessings. Solomon's humble reply reveals him at his height—"I am but a little child, I know not how to go out or to come in . . . Give thy servant therefore an understanding heart to judge thy people, that I may discern between good and evil."

That request so pleased God, to whom righteousness is precious, that He dowered Solomon also with riches and honor, as well as with "a wise and understanding heart so that there hath been none like thee before thee, neither after thee shall any arise like unto thee" All that because Solomon had sought first "understanding to discern justice." Many a teacher will expand this incident, as evidence of the place of social justice and righteous government in the sight of God.

It is easy to see why the Proverbs of Solomon abound in tributes to wisdom. "'Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom." For wisdom is the handle that fits all the tools of life. And Wisdom, says Solomon's example and precept, comes from God. Erudition may be ecquired in the schools; but wisdom, which alone makes erudition useful, is a gift of God himself.

A Royal Author and Editor.

In connection with the study of the life of Solomon, a Book of Proverbs should be read. As a handbook of practical counsel for the young, this collection of wise sayings has never had an equal. Solomon wrote most of the proverbs, and collected others. We do not usually think of him as an author; but he was the world's greatest maker of epigrams, and an immortal poet besides. "The Song of Songs" is his, and at least one of the psalms. The pessimistic book of Ecclesiastes probably reflects the dillusionment of his old age, when he had departed from the counsel of his father, and from the law of God.

Like most authors, Solomon wrote better than he lived. He had not the fortitude to follow the truth as he saw and penned. Power and luxury and magnificence weakened the fibre of his character; and he became a self-indulgent, tyrannical sensual oriental potentate, who had forgotten his early ambition to promote justice for the poor. He married foreign wives and had a thousand women in his harem.

A King and A Builder.

Solomon's greatest achievement was the building of the first Temple of Jehovah, a house of magnificence and dignity and beauty. It has always been looked upon as one of the wonder-works of the world. The finest of wood and stone and metal, including uncounted gold, were put into it by the best brains that could be commanded in all the world.

That temple has been the warrant for every great church and cathederal that his since been erected. For it symbolized the truth that the best belongs to God. His worship his worthy of man's uttermost offering.

In the train of Solomon's follow that countless company of men and women who have given of their best thought and tireless service to the work of the church. The real career of millions of persons, represented in every community has been their unsung ministry in their local churches. Unconsciously, they have displayed somewhat of the wisdom of Solomon at his best.

Seven Sentence Sermons.

Though the people support the government, the government should not support the people.—Grover Cleveland.

A bad custom is like a good cake, better broken than kept.—Old Proverb.

Assailed by scandal and the tongue of strife,
His only answer was a blameless life.—Cowper.

Rundown in Health

Means Rundown in Blood!

Blood is life. Blood is everything. When blood gets thin or poor you feel it in a dozen different ways. Appetite fails, strength ebbs and you become weak and depressed.

To build up your blood, take Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic. It contains iron which makes for rich, red blood. It also contains tasteless quinine which tends to purify the blood. Thus you get two effects of great value in any rundown condition. Taken regularly for a few days, Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic will soon have you back on your feet. It will improve your appetite, increase your strength and vitality and put color in your cheeks. For half a century, Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic has been a source of strength and energy for young and old. It is pleasant to take and contains nothing harmful. Get a bottle today and enjoy real health. Sold by all dealers.

SIXTY MILLIONS IN FEDERAL RELIEF FOR STRICKEN DISTRICTS

TEXAS PANHANDLE AND RIO GRANDE VALLEY IN LIST OF FAVORED SPOTS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13. (AP)—Federal aid totaling $60,000,000 has been ordered by President Roosevelt to meet the emergencies resulting from drought, hurricane and grasshoppers.

He today instructed the director of emergency relief, the farm credit administration and the public works board to co-operate in getting aid to the stricken areas of the Dakotas, the Texas Panhandle, Florida, and the Rio Grande regions.

These areas have been suffering from natural causes, and the President is willing to extend aid.

He also is depending on the people in these communities to go the limit in helping themselves.

He has asked Secretary Ickes, the public works administrator, to set aside special funds to be available for immediate road construction in the harmed regions.

Harry L. Hopkins, emergency relief director, has orders to provide the necessary amounts for food and clothing and feed for livestock.

The farm credit administration is expected to extend credit as liberally as possible.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—(AP)—Federal Relief Administrator Harry L. Hopkins announced today that part of the vast relief project in the drought and storm areas of the Dakotas, Texas, the Southwest and Florida would consist of public works appropriations on a 30-70 basis with the government putting up the 30 per cent.

Hopkins made this statement to newspapermen after a conference with Secretary Ickes, administrator of the public works fund, and Henry Morgenthau, Jr., governor of the farm credit administration.

Earlier in the day the White House had announced the new emergency relief policy and estimated the cost to the federal and state governments involved at about $60,000,000.

Hopkins said some appropriations for the drought-stricken relief would be made before the week is out. The 70 per cent which the states will be required to put up on the public works feature, he added, would be supplied partially with federal employment relief funds.

Road Construction.

The public works money to be allotted, Hopkins said, would go largely for road construction. After he defines the specific areas in which the relief expenditures are to be limited, the bureau of public roads will determine how many roads can be built.

The roads will be largely of the feeder type where work can be started immediately. The public works money will go for materials, while Hopkins' administration and the state will pay the wages.

Hopkins said Morgenthau had assured a liberal credit policy and that his organization would be the first to which relief applicants will be referred.

He estimated the road program alone may give employment to 40,000 men.

Drought Relief.

Hopkins said relief agency funds would be spent in the drought areas in the Dakotas and the Panhandle of Texas and parts of Oklahoma, Kansas and Colorado for work relief; food, clothing, feed for hogs, chickens, cows and horses, fall forage crops and possibly spring seed crops.

As for the hurricane areas of Texas and Florida, Hopkins said the money would go for work relief. He said 12,000 families were in need in Texas in the storm area and he had adopted the policy that such persons were destitute unemployed.

He estimated that 40,000 families were affected by the drought in South Dakota and about the same number in North Dakota, while from forty to fifty thousand families were suffering in the Panhandle and other southwest drought areas. He figured approximately 12,000 families were storm sufferers in Florida.

FARMERS OF SOUTH CAROLINA DEMANDING 15-CENT COTTON

COLUMBIA, S. C., Sept. 13.—(AP)—"Fifteen-cent cotton" was the cry toward Washington of South Carolina farmers today.

Taking the lead in a drive to get better prices for the staple, the state, through Governor Blackwood, has called upon other cotton growing states to make a direct appeal to President Roosevelt next Monday "to save the southern cotton farmer."

After a mass meeting of growers, agricultural leaders and representatives of governors of three other states here yesterday, Governor Blackwood telegraphed other cotton governors to call mass meetings Saturday to consider resolutions similar to those adopted here.

They also were requested to name delegations to join one from South Carolina in an appeal to the president Monday. Notifying Secretary of Agriculture Wallace of the meeting's action, Governor Blackwood asked the secretary to arrange an audience with the president for the delegations.

Chief among recommendations of the mass meeting were that President Roosevelt inflate the currency immediately to raise the price of cotton and farm lands, thus restoring the farmer's buying power; and suspend the cotton processing tax, "since we believe it is being paid by the farmer."

Governor Talmadge of Georgia, who was represented at the meeting, issued a statement calling for inflation. North Carolina and Alabama representatives also were present.

Resolutions asked the government to establish a minimum price of 15 cents a pound for cotton, "subject to increase in accordance with requirements of a parity price."

The 1934 crop would be limited to 9,000,000 bales if demands of the Plametto growers are met.

Okeh Given to Texas Relief By Harry Hopkins

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—(AP)—Harry L. Hopkins, federal relief administrator, said today he had made an investigation of complaints of "politicalization" in Texas relief and had found no evidence of such activity.

He said an investgation was conducted some six weeks ago by Prof. N. B. Bond of the University of Mississippi department of sociology, into "various complaints" in the state.

"Texas relief administration," he added, "is one of the best in the country in my opinion. I have great confidence in Col. Westbrook who is to administer the fund in that state.

"We are delighted that Texas has appropriated a reasonable share of money to be spent for relief and an investigation found no evidence of 'politicalization' of relief, the federal administration, of course, would not tolerate any such condition if it existed anywhere."

Prof. Bond, Hopkins said, "investigated the whole setup in Texas in response to various complaints we got."

OFFICIALS SEEK IDENTIFY NEGRO KILLED BY TRAIN

Railroad officials and officers are seeking the identity of an aged negro whose mangled body was found on the Southern Pacific Lines right-of-way about a half mile north of Angus at an early hour Wednesday morning.

Judge Sam B. Jordan, justice of the peace, viewed the body and stated that death was apparently due to being struck by a train. No report had been made Wednesday morning by any train crew of having seen or struck the negro. The negro appeared to be approximately 65 years of age. There was nothing about his person by which his identity could be established. Two $1. bills were in one of his shoes and a small amount of change was in his pocket. The initials "EWF" were stamped in his hat.

It is presumed that the aged negro had stopped on the track, removed his shoes and probably fell asleep.

The negro's skull was crushed. The body was taken to Angus and later was turned over to a negro undertaking establishment.

Bates Broke His Handcuffs; New Pair Is Secured

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 14.—(AP)—Albert Bates, held in the county jail here as one of the alleged principals in the Charles F. Urschel kidnaping, broke his handcuffs in his cell about 6 a. m. today, guards reported.

A federal officer on guard duty saw the handcuffs come apart and immediately put a new pair on the prisoner.

The handcuffs which Bates broke were of a special design, with the middle link replaced by a steel bar 14 inches long to prevent the prisoner from getting his hands together. Fred Smith, jailer, said Bates probably in some way used the bar as a lever to break one of the links.

HUSBAND FORMER CORSICANA WOMAN DIED IN DALLAS

Funeral services for Robert G. Newton, 40, of Dallas, who died Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock after on illness of several months are being held in Dallas Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Burial will be made in Grove Hill cemetery.

Surviving are his wife, formerly Miss Gladys Redden of Corsicana; mother, Mrs. Kate Newton, a brother, Frank Newton, all of Dallas; and two sisters, Mrs. F. E. Dickey Dallas, and Miss Lucille Newton, Los Angeles.

DEMOCRATS GROW IMPATIENT AS REPUBLICANS HOLDING AND BEING NAMED TO HIGH PLACES

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—(AP)—Patronage, that trouble zone of politics, produced in the capital today rumbles of Democratic unrest that resounded even above the intensity of President Roosevelt's recovery drive.

A group of party stalwarts in the senate was reported to have sponsored a round-robin to the chief executive asking jobs for old-line Democrats. These Senators protested the appointment of Republicans—particularly by Secretary Ickes, Wallace and Perkins.

At the other end of the capitol, Speaker Henry T. Rainey blamed the "old Republican set-up" in the farm credit administration for failure to give the farmers "adequate" mortgage relief.

The senatorial round-robin could not be located. But among its signers was a report that a letter on the same subject had gone to the White House from Senator Key Pittman of Nevada, the senate's president pro-tempore and foreign relations committee chairman.

This communication further was reported to say that the three cabinet officers "have resented my approaches." It was said to observe also:

"If a Democrat is named for office, it involves political corruption. If a Republican is named, in their minds, it is an indication of high-minded non-partisanship."

Rainey, who dictated a statement upon returning to his office yesterday, said "Every key man in the old Republican organization has been retained" by the credit administration.

"I am not insisting on a Democratic set-up," the speaker said, "but I am protesting against Republican control."

He named Paul Bestor, farm loan commissioner under President Hoover, as the man through whom Eugene Meyer, former governor of the federal reserve board, "pulls the wheels" in dispensing agricultural credit.

Farm credit officials said Bestor had stayed on without pay to aid Henry Morgenthau, Jr., governor of the administration.

ONLY SEVEN STATES NEEDED TO RATIFY REPEAL OF LIQUOR AMENDMENT; 29 HAVE ACTED

By the Associated Press

Twenty-nine states today marched the repeal path; only seven more need follow to end national prohibition.

Maryland, Minnesota, and Colorado were the latest recruits. All voted yesterday to abolish the eighteenth amendment and left the score in 1933's balloting: For repeal—29; against—0.

If the seven states now needed to supply the three-quarters of the union required for repeal are among the 10 voting before November 8, the repeal amendment will be ratified formally on December 6—date of the 36th convention.

The wets carried Maryland overwhelmingly. Fast mounting figures put the repeal majority at nearly five to one.

The margins were smaller but substantial in Colorado and Minnesota, home of Andrew J. Volstead who sponsored the prohibition enforcement law. Late counts listed both in the two-to-one class.

Prohibitionists promised undiminished efforts to block the trend which on Monday cost them Maine, the nation's first bone dry state.

Next week, on Tuesday, Idaho and New Mexico vote on repeal. Two weeks later—October 3—Virginia votes, and a week later—October 10—Florida.

These four end the balloting until November 7 when six more vote: Kentucky, North Carolina, Ohio, Pennsylvania, South Carolina and Utah.

The list of 29 states which have voted to ratify the twenty-first or repeal amendment today read: Michigan, Wisconsin, Rhode Island, Wyoming, New Jersey, New York, Delaware, Nevada, Illinois, Indiana, Massachusetts, Connecticut, New Hampshire, Iowa, West Virginia, California, Alabama, Arkansas, Tennessee, Oregon, Arizona, Missouri, Texas, Washington, Vermont, Maine, Maryland, Minnesota and Colorado.

Colorado Returns

DENVER, Sept. 13.—(AP)—Returns today from yesterday's special election for ratification of the 21st or prohibition repeal amendment to the constitution today showed:

1215 precincts of 1547 in the state (Denver included): For repeal 122,875; against repeal 56,621.

REGISTRATIONS AND PROGRAM-MAKING IN SCHOOLS IS ACTIVE

Registrations and program-making in the junior and senior high schools were progressing rapidly Thursday, and according to present indications, the high school will have considerably more students enrolled this year than last. The buildings of all local schools were being put into shape, and everything is in readiness for the opening Monday, Sept. 18.

High school officials asked that every student who plans to attend the high school this year complete their registration and program making, before Friday afternoon, as it will be impossible to do this work on the opening day of school.

Superintendent W. H. Norwood urged all children who are to attend the grade schools this year for the first time to report to their schools at o'clock Friday morning for registration.

T. J. YORK IS NOW REPRESENTATIVE OF SEMI-WEEKLY LIGHT

The Corsicana Semi-Weekly Morning Light is glad to announce that it has added to its staff T. J. York, who will in the future be the special field representative of this paper. Mr. York needs no introduction to the public as his many years of business activity in the county speaks for itself, during that time he has made many friends who will be glad to know that he will be connected with the Light in the future.

With Mr. York's acquaintance throughout a wide radius in the rural sections, and the fact that he will represent the Corsicana Light it goes without saying that many new subscribers will be added to the Light.

Mr. York will make regular visits to the towns and rural communities around Corsicana in the interest of the Light, and with a big cotton crop now being gathered at a good price, and other activities in the field, there is every reason to predict much new business under the direction of Mr. York.

Accidental Shots Fatal to Eureka Man Wednesday

Funeral services for J. E. Skeene, 25, caretaker of the Will Thompson farm near Eureka, who was accidentally killed Wednesday morning while squirrel hunting, were held at the Eureka cemetery Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock where interment was made. The services were conducted by Rev. I. R. Darwood, Methodist minister.

Skeene is thought to have been killed about 8 o'clock Wednesday morning. Parties began searching for him when his wife became alarmed after he did not return to his residence for breafast. The body, with two charges from a shotgun near the heart, was found about 11:30 o'clock. It is thought that the gun was accidentally discharged when the victim started to clean three squirrels already bagged.

Surviving are his wife, an 18-months-old son, Eureka; and his mother, a sister and a brother, all of Wichita Falls.

Pallbearers were A. H. Hodge, B. R. Allen, B. C. Anderson, L. G. Coker, G. T. May and Hal Johnson.

The funeral was directed by L. B. Bonner of Eureka.

MORE COTTONSEED CRUSHED IN AUGUST THAN ONE YEAR AGO

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—(AP)—Cotton seed crushed during August was reported today by the census bureau to have totaled 233,223 tons, compared with 152,826 tons in August last year, and cotton seed on hand at mills Aug. 31 was 220,306 tons, compared with 265,607 tons a year ago.

Cottonseed products manufactured during August and on hand August 31 were reported as follows:

Crude oil produced, 70,878,254 pounds, compared with 46,011,638 in August last year, and on hand 58,826,492 pounds, compared with 29,177,050 pounds a year ago.

Refined oil produced 58,090,075 pounds, compared with 39,799,627, and on hand, 640,607,152 pounds, compared with 525,696,832.

LOCAL MANAGER OF MUNICIPAL GAS CO. ISSUES STATEMENT

IMPOSSIBLE FOR THIS COMPANY TO MAKE ANY RATE REVISION NOW

The following statement concerning the announcement of the railroad commission ordering a reduction in gas rates was authorized today for publication by Henry Robbins, local manager of the Municipal Gas Company:

"Information reaches us to the effect that the Railroad Commission of Texas has entered an order reducing the Lone Star Gas Company's city gate rate from 40c to 32c per 1,000 cubic feet.

"This order will, no doubt be subject to review in the courts.

"As far as the Municipal Gas Company is concerned, the immediate effect of such order would be to reduce its operating expenses by a relatively small amount, but which saving would be offset by recent increases in State and Federal taxes and by increased expenses due to the company's compliance with the National Industrial Recovery Act program.

"For the past three years the earnings of the Municipal Gas Company have been so seriously affected by business conditions that the company has been unable to earn even a minimum fair rate of return upon its property. In view of these facts it will be manifestly impossible for the company to make any rate revision, even though the order of the Railroad Commission should be finally sustained."

EXTREMISTS

Whatever blessings thrift may confer upon the individual, there are times, judged by the interests of the common welfare, when it may be carried to excess. The American consumer has suddenly become too thrifty for his own good and for the world's good. There are indications that the expenditure on consumption is less than the earnings of the people justify.

Many have found encouragement in the rising totals of savings bank deposits, forgetting for the moment that they are the result of personal thrift and self-denial stimulated by the depression. When the American people have the assurance of a steady income they are as free spenders as any people on earth; but there is always a time, high or low, as the case may be, at which prudence jams on the brakes and halts us with a sudden jolt.

All the world has referred to us as the most extravagant nation on earth, and we have chosen to interpret the charge as a compliment rather than as a slur; and what we can, and do, in a small way, go a long way toward the other extreme.

No doubt serious individual effort should be made to flatten out the curves of individual expenditure, getting rid alike of the dizzy peaks and the precipitious valleys, just as enlightened industries are endeavoring to do; but this is, after all, a counsel of perfection and one to which human nature does not take kindly.

FUTURE OF RAILROADS.

Few lines of business have been more adversely affected by declining volume than the railroads. The rail carriers face a sea of troubles in addition to the business depression.

For a long time to come the railroads must remain the backbone of the transportation system as far as any one can see now. All other forms together could not fill the gap should the railroads cease operating.

Economists might say that if the capital invested in railroads is threatened because of the rise of more economical transportation methods, then it should be lost. But, of course, as a practical matter, it must not and will not be lost.

The holdings of insurance companies, savings banks, trust companies, trust funds, foundations, hospitals, universities, colleges and institutions in general are so largely invested in railroad bonds that as a merely practical political matter the railroads cannot be allowed to go under.

Not all the troubles of the railroads lie with modern competition and government regulations. Instead of displaying statesmanship and the managerial genius of the railroad builders, the managements have fought with one another for years and done nothing to save their business from new competitors. They are destroying themselves.

The cost of a rocket trip to the moon, a scientist estimates, would be about $100,000,000, which means that the moon is not destined soon to become a popular playground for Americans.

Clean wages a continuel battle against insects and pests which attack trees and plants, and sometimes it appears that with all the weapons of science at hand it is a losing battle.

WOMEN WHO BAIT FISH HOOKS

With rather dubious eyes I look
On women who can bait a hook
And never squeal or never squirm
Impaling minnow or a worm.

A minnow, slippery and cold.
Seems such a slimy thing to hold
That I've the ancient notion it's
A job to give a woman fits,

I know there's many a girl who can
Bait hooks as well as any man,
But just the same I seem to feel
That angle worms should make her squeal.

I do not criticize the kind
Of maid who man's work doesn't mind.
I'm just old fashioned and I look
Surprised to see one bait a hook.

APPEAL OF DEMAGOGUERY.

Citing Huey Long as a "horrible example," Ed Howe, the sage of Potato Hill, observes that "it is easy for anyone to win in politics, if the candidate is able to tell the demagogue story gracefully. The demagogue story is thousands of years old, and always the same; all dishonest voters ask of a new man telling it is that he be eloquent, dramatic, a good liar and a rogue like themselves."

His inspiration for these remarks were the conflicting statements by the Kingfish that his father was poor and ignorant, and kept in that condition by the unscrupulous rich, and by Huey's two lawyer brothers that their father was a successful farmer, better educated and more intelligent than Huey, and never ground down by anybody.

The average voter professes to know that all politicians are liars and that all political promises are valueless, and yet the average voter is quicker to follow the demagogue than the few sincere men in public life. It is a political truism that the best promiser is the best vote-getter.

The electors don't grow out of their early fondness for fairy tales. They like to read and hear about the poor peasant boy who bests the rich and cruel king or giant, although deep down in their hearts they know the political version is just so much hooey (sometimes spelled huey). Another modern version in the political primer is the rich man who enters politics to protect the little fellow from the rich and unscrupulous bankers and capitalists.

TYRANNY ALWAYS LOSES

From this distance it was not possible at first to determine whether the situation in Cuba was due to a bad government or to politicians who coveted power badly.

Now it is possible to perceive through the confusion, uncertainty and strife a national spirit taking form. At first it was not quite clear just what the Cuban people were fighting, rebelling and dying for.

Under the Machado regime thousands of Cubans, young and old, were willing to make every sacrifice and to suffer and die to give to their island republic a government responsive to the public desire. There are times when nations find that life is more than meat and raiment.

One of the charges against Machado was that he ran the country and the government for the benefit of American interests which kept him in power, a charge implying that Washington kept men like President Machado in power that American bankers might exploit the country without molestation.

While Cuba prospered it was indifferent to its government and to the graft and exploitation, even as the United States was indifferent to its own disordered house while everyone prospered, but for a decade now Cuba has been sugar poor and conscious of its economic and political plight.

President Machado is out for the reason that he made the mistake the "ins" usually make. Had he betrayed the interests that put him in power, instead of continuing to betray the Cuban people, he probably would still be president.

Middle-age is that period when nothing has as much appeal after 12 o'clock as the thought of bed.

WILL INSULL BE RETURNED

Again Samuel Insull is in the limelight by virtue of a second attempt by the United States government to extradite him from his haven in Athens, Greece. The Hoover government failed Whether the Roosevelt government can succeed remains to be seen.

A new indictment is being used in this attempt. By charging the former utilities magnate with violation of the federal bankruptcy act the department of justice at Washington believes it can bring him back to the states, since that is an extraditable offense under the terms of the Greco-American treaty of 1932.

If this administration brings Insull back it will amount to a serious indictment of certain members and policies of the last administration. It was claimed last December when the fleeing millionaire was keeping one step ahead of pursuing American agents that the true situation was that the agents were keeping one step behind Insull until he could reach a country which could be depended upon to ignore the warrants in hand.

Insull had many friends in the last administration, and political friends usually can be depended upon by men who have been large campaign contributors in the past. It does not appear now that he has equally powerful friends in the present administration.

It is apparent that Insull is trying to keep out of the American courts until the men of his former profession are in a little better repute than they are at present. Feeling is still running pretty high to guarantee a fair trial before an impartial jury even if the defendant were innocent.

FAITH IN THE SUBSIDY

The idea of destroying part of the cotton crop was not original with the authors of the New Deal. The staple was in oversupply long before the country heard of the New Deal, and as long as there has been overproduction there has been talk of burning bales or plowing under rows.

For years the planters have been meeting to consider plans. At these gatherings they have solemnly vowed to burn part of the bales in their sheds and then gone home to watch the skies for the glare that would prove that someone was fool enough to burn his cotton.

Other plans proposed were crop reduction and the plowing under of every third row. But nothing ever came of it. In 1931 the Hoover administration proposed that every third row be destroyed. Nothing was done. The Louisiana legislature made it illegal to plant cotton in 1932, provided that three-fourths of the other cotton states followed Louisiana's example. They refused.

Why, then, was the idea such an instantaneous success under the Roosevelt administration after so many failures? Because the New Deal scheme is the first that has offered the planter an immediate return in dollars and cents for his destroyed bales. He can see the advantage of plowing under a quarter of his crop for $6 or more per acre where he was not economist enough to realize that by reducing his crop he would create a better price for the bales he did produce. He has confidence in the government's ability and good intentions to pay him, whereas he could not depend upon the other planters to burn their surplus bales or plow nuder their surplus acres.

When hope looks backward it is transformed into regret.

LAST GOLD STAR PILGRIMAGE.

Hidden away in the corner of the news the other day was a small item announcing that the last of the Gold Star mothers and widows had completed the pilgrimage to the battlefield cemeteries of France.

In 1929 congress voted the necessary funds to provide transportation for the war mothers and widows who desired to visit the battlefield graves of their sons and husbands. The quartermaster corp was appointed their guardian for the journey and now reports that 6,674 women availed themselves of the opportunity, while 9,812 declined.

Where it was possible and the families desired it bodies were exhumed and brought home for burial, particularly in the cases of Americans who lost their lives in Russia. But that was passible in relatively few cases so the government did the next best thing—offered to pay the expenses of all mothers and windows of war heroes who desired to visit the last resting place of the war dead in Flanders field.

It was a fine gesture and the nation rejoices that so many women were able to take advantage of their country's generous offer. Few of the 6,674 could have made the pilgrimage at their own expense.

Time has healed the wounds left on the hearts of mothers and widows but it could never erase the thought they had never seen the grave of son or husband.

RENNAISANCE OF COOKING.

Americans have ever been considered culinary barbarians by the French, who pride themselves on knowing how to cook. They say we know neither how to prepare food nor how to eat it nor what to drink with it.

There are American epicures who agree with them, turning up their educated noses at what they call a dreary waste of bad cooking. The great American banquet with its standardized dishes they scorn. They hunt for subtle sauces and fine flavors and find them not.

History tells us that prior to the passage of the eighteenth amendment there were a few places in these United States which did not advertise "American cooking." The famous old eating houses either closed their doors years ago or went into the hot-dog business.

It is an historic fact that drinking, if not too serious, promotes more eating, more leisurely eating and better eating. Such masters of the culinary art as Anthelme Brillat-Savarin discovered long ago that there were drinks which refined the pallet and whetted the appetite as well as gave the food that elusive and much to be desired flavor.

Therefore it is not surprising that co-incidental with the return of beer and wine the Society for the Advancement of Better Living should appoint a Committee of Gourmets to promote more leisurely eating and quieter drinking. They will exalt the gentle art of fine cooking by abhorring the other kind and by annually awarding a "cordon bleu" to the first chef of the nation.

Huey Long thinks President Roosevelt and his new deal are moving too slowly. If the senate investigation of Huey's activities in Louisiana is a part of the new deal, there are many who will agree with the kingfish.

Most newspaper readers refuse to become excited over the controversy whether it was one or four men that hit Huey Long. They are satisfied either way.

Sometimes husband and wife chat merrily as they prepare for bed, and sometimes they have played against one another at bridge.

John Jacob Astor, III, at 21 is heir to the $10,000,000 Astor fortune. As pleasant a birthday gift as we are able to think, off hand.

Will repeal bring back good beer?

COMPLIANCE BOARDS BE SET UP FURTHER NRA PURPOSES SOON

LOCAL BOARDS WILL HAVE NO AUTHORITY BUT CAN REFER CASES HIGHER

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—(AP)—NRA "compliance boards" are to be set up in every city and town to assure observance of the blue eagle agreements.

As outlined to reporters today by Hugh S. Johnson, the administrator, the duty of each board will be to investigate complaints of violations, hold hearings and seek to obtain voluntary compliance.

If this is not forthcoming, they will report to Washington for disciplinary action.

The local board will have no executive authority.

This endeavor to enhance results for the blue eagle campaign was launched as the NRA advanced to consolidate its permanent industrial control work, holding hearings on codes for motion pictures, boots and shoes, silk textiles and other industries.

The compliance boards set up by today's order will be named by the NRA campaign committees in each community.

They shall consist of two employe representatives, one for industrial workers and the other for trade, two employers' spokesmen, one consumer representative, preferably a woman, and one lawyer.

These are to pick a chairman who shall be a citizen of unquestioned high standing and neutral as between the various interests.

Besides dealing with complaints of agreement violation, the compliance boards will be charged with passing upon requests for exemptions presented by individual employers who claim great hardship would be caused them by NRA compliance; and also to consider applications for continuance of longer hour schedules now being worked by employes under union contracts.

Three New Codes Being Worked On

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—(AP)—The recovery administration pitched in today to bring three more important industries, motion pictures, silk textiles and shoes, under permanent codes of competition, while still after an agreement on the controverted soft coal code.

The films code, a composite compact covering producers, distributors and exhibitors, presented to the administration an array of regulations to prohibit practices—from the studio to the theatre—which have caused public controversy for years.

Enticing stars from one studio to another and compelling theatres to show pictures they do not want as a condition to getting the best features were among the most conspicious activities isted for abolition.

The silk code had special significance in view of widespread strikes which in the past two weeks have shut down or hampered mill operation, requiring intensive work by the national labor board in search of temporary conciliation.

Strikes also have affected the shoe manufacturing centers in New England, and an intense drive was expected from the industrialists to retain in the code the "merit" clause for hiring and firing men regardless of their union membership or non-membership. Hugh S. Johnson, recovery administrator, has ordered this clause banned from codes as a breeder of misrepresentation of the administration's labor policies.

George M. Sunday, Son of Evangelist Dies Result Fall

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 12.—(AP)—An inquest into the death of George M. Sunday, 40, son of Billy Sunday, the evangelist, injured in a fall from a dindoy of his apartment, was set for today.

Sunday died last night as doctors attempted to reset a fractured jaw, one of several injuries received in the fall Thursday night.

Dr. Edgar H. Howell, a physician, said Sunday was under an anaesthetic, but attributed his death to shock caused by injuries.

His mother, Mrs. Hallie Sunday, and Sunday's father are here.

Sunday told police his fall was accidental.

Will of Denver Publisher Held Divorce Breeder

DENVER, Sept. 12.—(AP)—Mrs. Clyde V. Berryman, daughter of the late F. G. Bonfils, publisher, was granted a petition in county court here to receive $25,000 annually from the $12,000,000 estate of the publisher, after Judge George Lexford ruled yesterdav that one clause in Bonfils' will was an incentive to cause Mrs. Berryman to divorce her husband and was contrary to public policy.

The clause provided that Mrs. Berryman should receive $12,000 annually from the estate as long as she remained the wife of Berryman, and $25,000 annually if she ceased to be his wife.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Berryman were in court for hearing, but neither testified.

The decision of Mrs. F. G. Bonfils, widow of the publisher to take her widow's half of the estate was formally entered in court. Under terms of her husband's will, Mrs. Bonfils was left a $50,000 annuity.

TOTAL OF $39 IS RECEIVED ON RED CROSS QUOTA HERE

When the recent tropical hurricane screamed across the rich and productive lower Rio Grande Valley of Texas, destroying millions of dollars worth of property, and killed and injured many of the residents there. Homes were destroyed and the citrus orchards that have made the Valley famous in recent years, were laid waste.

In short, the heavy hand of disaster was laid unsparingly on the people of that district—and imdiately the American Red Cross became intensively active and sent itself into that area quickly. This disaster relief workers and relief temporary relief was not enough and the Red Cross chapter of Navarro county as well as all other Texas chapters were called on for further assistance. The quota of the Navarro county chapter was placed at $800. A week has passed since the appeal was made and to press hour Tuesday a total of $39 had been reported subscribed.

Tuesday a cash donation of $15 and a check from Mr. and Mrs. Tarbutton were received.

JACKSONVILLE GIRL IS HELD PRISONER IN CHICAGO FLAT

RESCUED BY PLAINCLOTHES MAN ONE BLOCK FROM DETECTIVE HEADQUARTERS

CHICAGO, Sept. 12.—(AP)—Rescued today by a plainclothes policeman, Margaret La Gette of Jacksonville, Fla., told a story of being held prisoner for more than a year in a second-story flat.

The girl, a trained nurse, was near hysteria as she related her horror of captivity and exhibited welts and bruises from beatings.

The police arrested Theodore Economakos, State Street restaurant proprietor above whose cafe the girl said she was held. The place is a block from the detective bureau.

The cafe owner, Miss La Gette said, offered her a job shortly after she arrived from Jacksonville, where she said she had been a nurse at St. Luke's hospital, took her to the second floor and kept her there except for brief intervals, when she scrubbed floors.

The nurse said she had begged men, who were sent to her room, to help her. One of the men told Economakos, she said, and she was beaten unconscious with a strap.

Miss La Gette said she was 28 years old. She is a tall, slender brunette.

Police records showed Economakos was sentenced to penitentiary for receiving stolen property, and was paroled two years ago. The police said he might be returned to prison for violation of parole.

The girl will be sent home.

Find Bodies Of Three Autogiro Victims in Lake

INDIANA HARBOR, Ind., Sept. 12.—(AP)—Mystery of the disappearance of an autogiro while on a flight from South Bend, Ind., to Chicago had been solved today with the finding of the bodies of the three ocupants in the storm tossed waters of Lake Michigan.

The bodies were recovered yesterday and identified as those of Charles T. Otto, Haverford, Pa., the pilot; H. W. (Spud) Manning, Pico, Calif., world's champion parachute jumper, and Miss Majenta Gerard, 22, River Forest, Ill. No traces of the plane were discovered.

The trio left South Bend last Wednesday after attending a party the night before at the home of Vincent Bendix for participants in the International Air Races.

TRIBUTE IS PAID MRS. G. C. GROCE IN WAXAHACHIE PAPER

FORMER RESIDENT OF CORSICANA HAS BEEN CRITICALLY ILL

The following editorial which appeared in a recent issue of the Waxahachie Light in tribute to Mrs. G. C. Groce who has been critically ill in that city, will be read with interest in Corsicana, where Mrs. Groce, as Miss Helen Halbert, sister of the late J. L. Halbert, taught in the public schools and was active in the religious, civic and social life of the city, prior to her marriage and moving to Waxahachie to make her home.

Her many Corsicana friends will be glad to learn that her condition is greatly improved and complete recovery is now anticipated.

The editorial in the Waxahachie Light follows:

The Prayers of Waxahachie Are for Mrs. Groce's Recovery.

Mrs. G. C. Groce of this city is a most remarkable woman. Hers has been active life, devoted to others. No history of Waxahachie's achievements would ever be complete without frequent mention of the endeavors of this Christian character. For that reason Mrs. Groce holds a high place in public esteem. She is ill, but her friends have not forgotten. They are praying for her recovery.

Sometimes we think no higher tribute could ever be paid to a living soul than the following which came in the mails from a true friend of Mrs. Groce, and we are proud of the privilege of giving it space. Need we add anything to these sincere words:

Resting.

"You are resting a bit, now, little woman, following the years of activity. Just resting. Your room is a bower of offerings from your friends. Exquisite floral ones and daintiest of viands. There are visits and messages, letters and telegrams; all that love can lay before you.

"Members of the Under Race whose champion you have been all along the way come to the door to learn of your recovery.

"Doesn't this cheer you—to know that your love for, your interest in, those around you—especially the trodden ones—has borne such fruit.

"A clear-cut scene remains with us: you appeared on one occasion before a woman's organization, your topic the colored race; you caused tears by your pathetic incidents; smiles over your rare humor—and were ever eloquent in your plea for this people. Too, the evening a group of dusky men and women called at your rear door, asking your assistance in a trying situation. You gave it cheerily.

"And the young people who rise up and call you blessed; the young people to whom you have thrown open your home on many occasions; the assistance you have given to them in all their organizations. Materially? Yes, and spiritually. The valuable work you have done in every phase of civic activity. The cheer and encouragement you have offered wherever you went. Just because you were you. The friends you have won, the good you are doing.

"And your crowning glory, the young men and women who call you mother. Following very closely in your footsteps, their carts, too, hitched to a star.

"What a wealth of treasures you possess as you lie there just resting! Hurry, little woman and come back to us. We miss you. We need you! We want you!"

The attorney's fee was set at $150.

ADDITIONAL WAR VETERANS WILL BE ENROLLED IN C. C.

EFFORT WILL BE MADE TO APPORTION EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES FAIRLY

Notice of the selection of approximately 165 veterans for enrollment in the Emergency Conservation Corps, before the close of business on September 30, 1933, by the Veterans' Administration Regional office, Dallas, was received by the Corsicana post office today, from Read Johnson, manager. Mr. Johnson's letter follows:

"In making the selections, an effort will be made to apportion the employment opportunities to the counties according to population. Consideration will be given to applications now on file and to those received prior to the close of business, September 23, unless we fail to receive our quota by that date. In such event we would consider applications received up until the close of business September 30.

"In making selections, consideration will be given to the applicant's sincerity of purpose, the need of employment, character, dependents, and physical fitness to perform ordinary manual labor.

"Those applicants who are selected for enrollment will be required to report at their own expense to one of the three designated recruiting stations in this area. The recruiting stations now operating for this district are Dallas, Fort Worth, and Wichita Falls.

"Veterans interested in enrollment should communicate with the Veterans' Administration, Cotton Exchange building, Dallas, Texas."

Teague Lions Will Oppose Odd Fellows

TEAGUE, Sept. 13. (Spl.)—Coach Boyd "Chesty" Payne's I.O.O.F. Lynx will furnish the opposition in one of the five at-home games carded by the Teague high school Lions for the coming grid season.

The Lynx took the Lions into camp last fall, and the game this year will furnish the locals a chance to get vengeance, if they are able.

Workouts for the Teague eleven are progressing at a nice clip, under the watchful eye of Bryan Schley, and it appears that the record of the Lions will depend on the way some of the new material stand the pressure of becoming regulars.

Coach Schley has several good backs returning, but there are only four lettermen returning for the line, those being Pete Davidson, fiery center; Howard Perry, stalwart guard; George Roberts, used at tackle, guard and end last year; and Earle Smith, lanky end. Veteran backs returning to the gridiron wars are W. C. Wilson, Astol Lancaster, Tyrus Petty, Paul Davis, Murff Oglethorpe, and Wick Bonner.

The schedule for the Lions follows, with conference games marked (C).

NRA MEMBER U.S. CHEVROLET

"Proud and glad to do our part"

WITH President Roosevelt's acceptance of the NRA Automobile Code, Chevrolet, the world's largest builder of motor cars, officially begins operations in accordance with the administration's recovery program.

Although the official code was signed only a few days ago, it will be of interest to Chevrolet's many friends to learn that the Chevrolet Motor Company started to carry out the spirit of today's recovery program over three years ago!

At that time, we put into operation a "share-the-work" plan, whereby our workmen cooperated in spreading the work to give more men jobs. By means of this plan, as well as by regulating hours of work per week to meet retail demand, and by building up parts stocks in lean seasons, it was possible to carry 33,000 men on our payroll through the depression. For eleven months of each year since 1929, we have kept our employment within 10 per cent of this average. We are justly proud of that record. We are also proud to say that Chevrolet workmen did not, at any time during the depression, become a burden on public welfare departments.

On August 1st of this year, Chevrolet announced a blanket wage increase as well as the adoption of a 7½-hour, 5-day week and the employment of 12,000 additional men. This wage increase was the second in the last 4 months, Chevrolet having been among the first to put a blanket wage increase into effect.

We feel that the President's recovery program deserves the whole-hearted support of every citizen and manufacturer in America. It is a bold, swift, courageous plan to start the ball rolling toward economic recovery. Its sincerity is unquestioned. Its objectives are admirable. And the direct, forceful steps the President and his associates are taking to make it a success, should stir the pride and admiration of every American.

We are proud and glad to do our part. And we are deeply grateful to the American people for the patronage that has enabled us to anticipate the present recovery program and to play our part today. After all, the immense number of men employed by Chevrolet is a direct result of the continued preference America has shown for Chevrolet.

...CCUSED SLAYER OF SHERIFF SAYS DEAD MAN GUILTY

TRIAL OF ED STANTON AT TULIA FOR MURDER OF SHERIFF UNDER WAY

TULIA, Texas, Sept. 14.—(AP)—State testimony on record today at the murder trial of Ed "Perchmouth" Stanton, accused slayer of Sheriff J. C. Moseley, revealed that Stanton had told the Swisher county grand jury Glenn Hunsucker shot the officer.

Hunsucker was shot to death last July in a fight with officers near Carrizozo, N. M., at which time Stanton was captured. Mrs. Moseley, who succeeded her dead husband as sheriff of Swisher county, described the hunt for Hunsucker and Stanton.

Hubert Reynolds, Carrizozo deputy sheriff, identified a .45 calibre pistol taken from Stanton. The same pistol was identified by S. T. Boggin, Quitaque postmaster, as having been stolen when his office was robbed January 3.

Hunsucker and Stanton also were indicted in connection with the killing of Deputy Sheriff Joe Brown at Rhome. Doyle Meeks, arrested at Rhome after the killing there, testified that both Hunsucker and Stanton had told him about the shooting of Sheriff Moseley.

Meeks said Hunsucker told him the car they were driving at the time was burned near Littlefield. Meeks testified that while he and the two men, accompanied by Hunsucker's mother, Mrs. Ida Hunsucker, were drving toward Dallas, Stanton threw a rifle taken from Sheriff Moseley's car into a lake near Wichita Falls. It was on this trip that Deputy Brown was killed.

Previously Deputy Sheriff F. O. Goen of Swisher county had testified to finding the rifle in the lake and identified it as Sheriff Moseley's.

Another state witness, D. T. Layton of Tulia, said he was awake at the bedside of a sick son and witnessed the shooting of Sheriff Moseley. He said the man who killed the officer was standing on the ground near the sheriff's car, and that he was not the man who robbed a nearby filling station.

It was brought out in state testimony that the station was deliberately robbed after the sheriff was shot. Two men and a woman involved in the two crimes then sped away in an automobile. Floyd Ward, night attendant at the filling station, described Hunsucker as the man who robbed him.

In constructing the circumstantial case against Stanton, the state called a witness Steve Riddings, Amarillo ballistics expert.

CONVICTS

Hoffpauir, chief deputy for Vernon Parish.

"The ferryman reported the fugitives carried 8 or 10 rifles and plenty of ammunition and that they still wore the convict striped trousers and blue jumpers.

The Louisiana officers trailed the convicts' car to the vicinity of Newton, Tex., and turned back under the belief the men had diverted their course and were headed toward Beaumont.

Charles Frazier, notorious Southwest bandit and killer, wanted for crimes in Texas, Louisiana and Arkansas, was believed to be heading the flight in Texas. From all reports he was suffering from dangerous wounds he received in the Sunday battle at the penitentiary gates.

The fifth convict at liberty, believed to be Cleo Carlsen, 25, burglar from Acadia Parish, was reported hidden in the marshes of Avoyelles Parish where yesterday he escaped the gunfire of negro trusty guards which mowed down his three companions with buckshot slugs.

Five Still at Large.

Of the twelve who broke prison during a Sunday baseball game on visitors day one convict was killed by a penitentiary officer at the gates. Three were shot dead yesterday, three were recaptured by officers and five are still at liberty.

Two prison guards were slain within the penitentiary walls at the time of the prison disturbance and Captain John A. Singleton, in command of the camp, was fatally wounded.

Marksville's citizens shuddered yesterday afternoon as the bodies of John Anderson and Patrick J. Ryan and the dying James A. Russell, all New Orleans bandits, were hauled into the town in an open truck from their death trap with the guards east of the town.

Russell was removed from the truck to the office of Dr. A. P. Barbin where he made a dying statement to District Attorney Lester L. Bordelno giving incoherent details of the riot plot, the pistol smuggling and the shooting of the three convicts near here.

Planned by Yarrell.

Russell said the prison break was first planned by Jim Yarrell, Southwest bank robbery who was shot to death a week before the break by Arnold Davis, one of the guards slain by the escaping convicts last Sunday. Yarrell was killed as he attempted to start disorder.

Russell said that Marion Russell, his common-law-wife in New Orleans, smuggled a pistol to him in her dress on a visit and that other pistols were smuggled into the prison by an ex-convict he named as "Walker."

Ten or eleven negro trusty guards surprised Russell and his companions in a field east of Marksville, Russell said, and riddled them with slugs after they had thrown down their guns and surrendered.

The guards reported that they shot the convicts after they had disarmed themselves and started for the woods.

"Did you resist?" Russell was asked.

"Yes," he replied. "I tried to run away. They butchered us. We threw our guns away and threw our hands up. When we did they poured fire into us."

Two of the convicts, Bill Bryant, 25, Caddo Parish robber, and James C. Bird, 25, of Madisonville, serving a long term for assault and robbery, were captured on the banks of the Red River near here yesterday after an exchange of gunfire with two Avoyelles Parish deputy sheriffs.

The third convict recaptured, Jimmy Dear, 29, was taken into custody at the home of a farmer near here when he attempted to trade his prison shotgun for the farmer's rifle.

The convict seeking escape through the Avoyelles Parish marshes was thought to be Cleo Carlson, 25, Acadia Parish burglar.

The four fleeing through Texas are believed to be Charles Frazier, 35, of Gladewater, Tex., bank robber from Bossier Parish; Walter Henderson, 46, of Fort Worth, Tex., Caddo Parish robber, and Dallas Hunter, 31, of Shreveport, La., Claiborne robber.

Mrs. Russell, wife of the dead convict, was held in New Orleans and officers said she would be capitally charged as an accessory to murder for her part in smuggling firearms to the convicts.

SAN AUGUSTINE, Sept. 14.—(AP)—George Russell, sheriff of Sabine county, went out from Hemphill in a southeasterly direction today in search of escaped convicts from Louisiana after he received a report that three men in a (Chevrolet) car bearing a Mississippi license number were seen near Bronoson 10 miles west of Hemphill, at 1:30 a. m.

The car went through Hemphill at high speed, attracting the attention of a nightwatchman.

Ferryman Kidnaped By Fleeing Convicts

BEAUMONT, Sept. 14.—(AP)—Four of the 11 desperadoes who escaped from the Angola, Louisiana, penal farm Sunday during a riot in which three men were killed, crossed Hatton's ferry over the Sabine River just before midnight, kidnaped Leland Lenahen, ferryman, and fled into Texas.

Lenahen was released three miles down the Texas road leading into Newton, according to a telephone message from E. A. Hoffpauir, sheriff.

The car used by the convicts, still garbed in prison stripes, was taken from a young man and girl on the Anacoco, La., highway last night about 8 o'clock, the sheriff said. The men forced the couple to accompany them as far as Hornbeck, La., a distance of six miles, where the man leaped from the car. The convicts drove a short distance and released the girl unharmed, and apparently headed straight for the Texas line.

One of the four fugitives was wounded, Lenahen said, in spreading the alarm. He told the sheriff that all were heavily-armed about 13 rifles were seen in the car and each man was carrying two pistols.

The sheriff said he believed the quartet was heading for San Augustine, Tex., or Jasper.

Lenahen, who walked to the ferry and then drove his car into ...

wrestling commission of several members.

Purl President Pro Tem

The senate elected Senator George C. Purl of Dallas president pro tem. He was the only nominee and many senators made seconding speeches.

There were only twenty absent in the house, which has a membership of 150. Twenty-eight of the 31 senators were at their desks.

The house was in session only 20 minutes, and the senate worked 50 minutes. The house recessed until 2 p. m. and the senate until 3 p. m.

Frank Stubbeman of Midland was sworn as a member of the house to succeed the late B. Frank Haag of Midland, who died several weeks ago of injuries receied in an automobile accident. A committee was appointed to draft resolutions on Haag's death.

House Member Ill

Certificates from physicians attending Representative A. P. Johnson of Carrizo Springs were read, the physicians stating Johnson was suffering from nervous collapse and would be unable to attend the session. Johnson is convalescing at Rock Springs, the certificates stated.

With the senior senator, Archie Parr of Benavides, presiding, the senate held its usual caucus shortly before the session opened. Each of the 31 senators was empowered to name two employes, in addition to the approximately 25 pages and porters to be appointed by the lieutenant governor and the officers.

This was virtually the same number of employes as was provided for in the regular session. The rates of pay also were about the same, senators said.

The senators drew lots to determine which private offices they would occupy. Private offices have been provided them for the first time through removing to other state buildings departments which have occupied the third floor adjoining the senate gallery.

Members Pay Approved

The senate passed a bill providing for an appropriation of up to $100,000 for the traveling expenses and salaries of members of the legislature. Another bill to appropriate $50,000 for contingent expenses was approved.

Senator Ben G. Oneal of Wichita Falls offered a bill to permit the transfer of state, county and district tax liens to private persons. Senator Oneal said the authorization of such transfers would enable many property owners in poor financial condition to get some one else to pay their taxes. The person paying the tax would be given the lien.

Bill Is Filed to Suspend Anti-Trust Statutes Thursday

AUSTIN, Sept. 14.—(AP)—A bill to suspend the strict state anti-trust laws in so far as persons and corporation operating under trade agreement approved by the President was filed today with the chief clerk of the Texas house of representatives.

It was offered by representative Rolland Bradley of Houston, and the same bill was introduced in the senate by Senator Walter Woodward of Coleman.

The bill was patterned after the uniform law suggested by General Hugh S. Johnson, National Recovery administrator, with variations to meet local conditions. It will be effective until June 16, 1935, but may be terminated earlier if the President decrees a national industrial emergency no longer exists.

It was expressly provided that the bill should not affect pending suits. James V. Allred, Texas attorney general, has sued a group of oil companies for forfeiture of charter and heavy penalties, alleging they conspired to violate the anti-trust laws and create a monopoly in the oil industry.

The bill provides that the state should let contracts only to persons and corporations operating under fair trade agreements. The codes would be considered as standards of fair competition when approved by the President.

Companies and persons operating under codes would be enabled to offer the code as a complete defense to any action charging that such a trade practice or agreement was a violation of the Texas anti trust laws.

All available officers and several hundred possemen scoured the woods around Hornbeck within a few minutes after the young man reported theft of his car and today Texas officers kept a close watch near the state line for the fugitives.

Charged With Murder.

BATON ROUGE, La., Sept. 14.—(AP)—Bill Bryant, 25, of Texarkana, Tex., James C. Bird, 25, of Madisonville, La., and Jimmy Dear of Bunkie, La., three of the escaped Angola convicts who were recaptured in Central Louisiana yesterday and brought here for safe keeping, today were formally charged with murder in connection with last Sunday's prison riot in which four men lost their lives.

The charges were preferred in nearby West Feliciana Parish where the penal farm is located. The three were questioned by officers of West Feliciana and East Baton Rouge, assisted by George Wallace, assistant state attorney-

TROPICAL STORMS CHECKED BY BUREAU U. S. GOVERNMENT

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—(AP)—A pair of tropical storms moved twelve miles per hour today through southern waters.

One was located 400 miles northeast of Nassau, in the Bahamas, and was traveling between northwest and west northwest attended by gales over a considerable area and by winds of hurricane force near its center.

The other was centered in Gulf of Mexico, approximately 150 miles north of Frontera, Mexico. It was maving west northwest attended by gales and by winds of hurricane force over a considerable area.

Caution was advised by the weather bureau to vessels in the path of both storms.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—(AP)—The weather bureau this morning issued the following storm warning:

Tropical disturbance central about twenty-nine north seventy-two west moving between northwest and west northwest about twelve miles an hour attended by gales over considerable area and by winds of hurricane force near center, caution advised vessels in and near path.

"Other tropical disturbance centered in Gulf about one hundred fifty miles north of Frontera, Mexico, moving west northwestward about twelve miles per hour attended by gales over considerable area and by winds of hurricane force over small area, caution advised vessels in and near path."

DENISON MAN HAS CONFESSED SLAYING OF L. D. HARDEE

SHERMAN, Sept. 14.—(AP)—G. H. McCoy, 45, of Denison confessed today, officers said, that he fatally injured L. D. Hardee, about 40, while they were quarreling near Howe, Tex., Monday night.

Hardee's body was found yesterday in a ditch but identification was not completed until today when H. V. Baugus, McCoy's father-in-law, and B. A. Baugus, who knew the slain man, viewed it.

After interment at the county farm, the body was disinterred in the belief that it might be that of Hardee.

McCoy in a signed confession said that he and Hardee, both insect spray salesmen, quarreled and that Hardee, who was intoxicated, tried to hit him with a tire tool.

A charge of murder wih malice aforethought was prepared for filing against McCoy.

IMMEDIATE RELIEF IN VALLEY SECTION PLANNED BY BOARD

FORT WORTH, Sept. 14.—(AP)—Projects which will provide immediate relief for four counties in the Rio Grande Valley which bore the brunt of the hurricane damage were considered today by the Texas Public Works Advisory Board.

Plans which leaders in that section have instituted to rebuild wrecked buildings and aid fruit and vegetable growkers were to be outlined by John H. Shary, Mission, a board member.

At Shary's suggestion, about 100 leaders in the stricken area met Saturday at Mission and formed the Rio Grande Valley rehabilitation and relief corporation. Questionnaires asking for complete information as to damage suffered were worked out and sent to all sections of Hidalgo, Willacy, Cameron and Starr counties. T. M. Melden, Mission, was named chairman of the organization.

Shary announced that the new Valley organization expects to have a definite report on needs in the damaged area by September 20, at which time steps will be taken to make application for PWA and other relief funds.

while providing cheap electric rates for a large area.

They deny the governor's charge that much valuable land would be submerged. Little except the river bottoms and adjoining rocky foothills would be well paid for their loss.

Opponents of the scheme, who include in addition to the fiery Oklahoma governor, President J. F. Owens of the Oklahoma City chamber of commerce, power interests, railroads and several congressmen from Oklahoma, assert that the project would cost far more than it ever would benefit the adjoining states.

They point to the large area to be flooded in creating the new lake, and contend that opening the river to navigation would be at the expense of the already hard-pressed railroads. Increase in productivity of the Red River Valley they say, is not to be desired in view of the farm surplus problem.

In the survey submitted to Secretary Ickes, champions of the dam stressed the flood control benefits, citing government figures to show the extent to which flood waters of the lower Mississippi, bearing down on Louisiana and New Orleans, are increased by the Red River at times.

SPORT NOTES

By PAUL MOORE —s— Sun Sports Editor

Joel C. Trimble, veteran bandmaster for the Corsicana and the State Home high school lost a good trombone player this week when Joe Rehders, Jr. quit the band and reported to the Corsicana Tiger football team. Joe is a track star and will probably make the team.

The Bengals are getting their plays and aerial attack perfected for their invasion of Fair Park Stadium in Dallas, Sept. 22, to battle the Forest Avenue Lions, always one of the strongest aggregations in Dallas. The youngsters at Corsicana High will have plenty of competition from the Dallas aggregation as they take the field for their opening tussle as defending champions of the University of Texas Interscholastic league.

The Tigers are fast, although inexperienced and considerably lighter than the championship crew of 1932. The boys are tough, however, and are scrappers. There are plenty of boys who can catch passes, too, in practice. The punting department is perhaps the one that is causing the most apprehension among the mentors as they train diligently and fast for the approaching season.

The most ambitious schedule in the history of Corsicana high has been arranged for this season and all of the clubs will point for the Bengals as they are the defending state champions.

Numerous rabid fans, football hungry, sit in their cars and peer through the fence at Tiger field each afternoon as the Bengals train.

There were a couple of out-of-town cars parked near the Tiger fiold fence Tuesday afternoon and the six visitors, strangers to the writer and others who were looking over the Junglebeasts, also were interested spectators as the youngsters went through their strenuous workout.

Tiger Field was mowed Tuesday. The field is in perfect condition and an abundant turf has been grown during the summer, in fact, the grass is so thick in places on the turtle-back that the power mower choked down frequently. This insures the Tigers a fine football field for the home games, and with the turtle back gridiron, guaranteeing suitable drainage, the weather will not handicap the performance of the Bengals at their home games as much as in former seasons.

San Antonio Missions are still disregarding the experts predictions and Wednesday night lambasted the Galveston Bucs, 5-1, to win the secon straight game of the championship series and incidentally their fifth Shaughnessy Plan play-off game. The Houston Buffs were trounced three straights. Fred Ankenman, president of the Houston Buffs and one of the finest sports connected with baseball in the South, says he is still for the Shaugnessy play-off plan and thinks its a good thing despite the trouncing his club took at the hands of the Missions. The Houston players, however, are not so easily placated as the Buff prexy and are loud in their denounciation of the play. They query: "What's the use of winning the championship if you can't get it until you play a couple of post-season series?"

Home run hitters Wednesday included Lewis, St. Louis Cardinals; Johnson, Philadelphia Athletics; Cramer, Philadelphia Athletics; Simmons, Chicago White Sox; West St. Louis Browns.

Andy Messenger, former San Antonio pitcher of the Texas league, held the Memphis sluggers to five hits Wednesday in the opening contest of the Southern association play-off championship series and New Orleans won, 6-0.

Dizzy Dean, former Texan, won his twentieth mound victory of the season Wednesday when he held the Brooklyn crew to five hits, the St. Louis Cardinals winning 4-1. Dean was ably assisted by Lewis, rookie catcher who celebrated his first major league performance with the home run and a couple of singles, batting in two runs and throwing out two players attempting to steal bases.

The Interurban company has announced a round-trip rate of $1 to Dallas, Sept. 22, for the opening football game of the season between Corsicana and the Forest Avenue Lions.

Tom Pevehouse of Blooming Grove was in Corsicana Thursday.

Miss Irene Lynch, graduate of the I. O. O. F. Home high school in the 1933 spring term class, was at the home today preparing to leave Monday for Waxahachie, where she wil lenter Trinity university.

SCHWAB MAY SUCCEED LAMONT, STEEL CZAR WHO QUIT BECAUSE OF GOVERNMENT REGULATIONS

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—(AP)—Charles M. Schwab was mentioned today as probable successor to Robert P. Lamont, steel "czar" who stepped out yesterday with a declaration that government regulation of industry has begun and "no one knows how far it may go."

Lamont's resignation as president of the American Iron and Steel institute, a post he had held for 13 months at a salary said to be $100,000 a year, came as a surprise to all except "inside" quarters.

Talk about the reasons for the resignation was rife. The New York Times said "the tone of his letter of resignation clearly indicated a lack of sympathy with the NRA". Institute officials said the resignation was not a protest against the recently adopted steel code.

"From now on", Lamont's letter said, "for an indefinite period, the principal activities of the iron and steel institute will be in seeing that the obligations of the industry under the code are properly carried out and reported to the government.

"The opportunity for constructive, forward-looking study and plans for the industry as a whole, that seemed possible a year ago, must give way to the pressing practical, immediate needs, which can best be met by men familiar with the vast details of the various branches of the industry. I can be of little help in this work."

Lamont, who was secretary of commerce under President Hoover, was named steel "dictator" in 1932 and his task was described at the time as co-ordination of business practices, stabilization of prices and furthering the institute's value as a service organization to members.

He was active in drawing a code for the industry.

Special Announcement!

TO THE PUBLIC

We are glad to announce to the thousands of readers and friends of the Corsicana Semi-Weekly Morning Light, and the public in general, that we have added to our staff----

Mr. T. J. York

Who will in the future be Our Special Field Representative of the Corsicana Light

Mr. York needs no introduction to Navarro and surrounding counties as his excellent record of the past as a prominent business man of Corsicana has acquainted himself with the entire community for a wide radius of Corsicana. Mr. York will give his entire time in securing new and renewal subscriptions to the Light, and he will visit the different sections of the surrounding communities in the interest of the Light.

As there will be much money pouring into the rural sections from now on following a good cotton crop at a good price there is every reason to predict that Mr. York will add hundreds of new subscriptions to this paper.

The subscription price for the Corsicana Light is $1.00 a year in advance, 75 cents for six months and fifty cents for three months.

The Light needs no introduction to this section as it has been published continuously for over fifty years.

Any co-operation given Mr. York in his new work will be appreciated.

The locals scored a total of 13 runs in the first six innings, to ice down the game, while Teague was making a lone run in the fourth. Corsicana again scored in the eighth, and Teague's big moment arrived in the first half of the ninth, when they mushed over four tallies.

Poindexter limited Teague to eight scattered hits, while the visiting team was making six errors. Corsicana made five errors.

Plans were under way Thursday morning to match a game with the potent Waco All-Stars, for next Wednesday night, Sept. 20.

SOMERVILLE BEING FAVORED TO WIN HIS SECOND GOLF TITLE

BY JAMES L. RENICK.
Associated Press Sports Writer.

KENWOOD COUNTRY CLUB, Cincinnati, Sept. 14.—(AP)—The job of stopping C. Ross (Sandy) Somerville, the silent Canadian Scot, from winning his second consecutive United States amateur golf championship looked tougher than ever today.

Gone was Johnny Goodman of Omaha, the National Open titleholder; gone was Johnny Fischer of Cincinnati, the record-making medalist; gone was a host of other potential champions as the tournament entered the quarter-finals.

Ernie Caldwell—one of the "dark horse" legion—made the second attempt of the day to eliminate the title holder. With the honor of dethroning the champion within his grasp going to the 18th hole, Caldwell faltered slightly and allowed the Canadian to square the match on the home green. Forced into an extra hole match for the second time during the day, Somerville won out on the 20th with a birdie two.

Following as a close second in thrills to Somerville's stubborn resistance was the ding-dong battle between H. Chandler Egan of Del Monte, Calif., and Goodman, the National Open king, in the first round.

Veteran Matches Youth.

Amateur title holder several years before Goodman was born, the 49 year old Californian matched his youthful opponent stroke for stroke, went one up at the 14th, held the advantage to the home green and then dropped an 18-foot putt to dispose of one of the favorites, two up, by means of a 70, one under par.

Spent from his strenuous round in the morning, Egan fell by the wayside before the sniping of 18-year-old Jack Munger, of Dallas, Tex., in the afternoon, 6 and 4. Munger is making his first bid for the title.

In another great second round duel, Johnny Fischer, the home-town boy, who Tuesday set an all-time qualifying record of 141, was defeated one up by Sidney Noyes, Jr., of Ardsley, N. Y., former captain of the Yale University golf team.

Today Noyes was paired with Marston, Jack Westland of Chicago was paired with Munger; Somerville faced Little and Eddie Held, of New York, a former National public links champion, was pitted against George T. Dunlap, Jr., of New York.

JACK SHARKEY TO MEET FIRST FOE IN COMEBACK ATTEMPT

KING LEVINSKY AND TOMMY LOUGHRAN FACE FORMER CHAMPION QUICKLY

BY CHARLES DUNKLEY
(Associated Press Sports Writer.)

CHICAGO, Sept. 13.—(AP)—Jack Sharkey, who never gave Horace Greeley a tumble on the latter's suggestion to go west for golden glory, brings his comeback venture as a former world's heavyweight champion, to the middlewest tomorrow night, meeting King Levinsky, the colorful clouter from Chicago's ghetto, in a ten round bout at Comiskey Park, the home of the White Sox.

It will be the first time that Sharkey has ever boxed in the middle west. The Chicago premiere of the fallen champion will be the start of the most pretentious comeback undertaken by a dethroned world's title holder. Twelve days after engaging Levinsky, Sharkey will meet one of his arch rivals, Tommy Loughran, the Philadelphia dancing master, in a 15-round skirmish in the Quaker City, on Sept. 27.

Beyond that, the former champion has visions of conquering a few more heavyweights and qualifying for a return battle with Primo Carnera, who knocked him out in six rounds, three months ago. He hopes of fighting Carnera, either at Miami in February, or in New York next summer.

Little Cash for King.

Win, lose, or draw, Levinsky will wind up taking a financial knockout tomorrow night, because Sharkey will receive a $25,000 guarantee, with the privilege of 40 per cent of the gate receipts, while Levinsky the reformed Maxwell street fish peddler, has no guarantee, and will get 20 per cent of what's left after Sharkey has been paid and all expenses met.

This is the second time that Levinsky has assumed the role of philanthropist. The first was in 1931 when he met Tuffy Griffith in the Chicago stadium, guaranteeing Griffith $25,000. Levinsky took a ten round licking and got $2,000 out of it. After he had paid off his help he had only coffee and doughnut money left.

Tomorrow night's bout will be promoted by Sammy Wolfe, nationally known Chicago ringsider, who has hopes that the gate receipts will reach $50,000. He says it will cost him $40,000 to stage the fight.

ANOTHER QUOTA OF COTTON CHECKS WAS RECEIVED WEDNESDAY

Another quota of government cotton checks was received Wednesday by County Agent C. C. Morris totalling $7,550 for 39 growers, and distribution of the vouchers was started immediately.

To date Navarro county has received a total of $33,553 in 186 checks or an average of $180.39 per check. Some possibility of a few days delay in the arrival of another quota was foreseen by local officials in the announcement from Washington that all checks for valley growers would be rushed by the federal officials to allay as much need and suffering as possible.

The county agent reported that considerable desire to co-operate was being shown by the growers but again asked that they refrain from calling at the office of the agent for their checks or to inquire about them until they had received a written notice from the agent. These notices will inform the grower where he may secure his check. Efforts are being made to deliver the checks to the growers' normal banking points and they may secure them there.

One charge of theft, one of running a red light, one of parking too near a fireplug, and one of intoxication appeared on the docket of the Corporation Court Thursday morning for the action of Judge H. S. Melear.

CHICAGO CREDITED WITH FIRST BLOW IN GIANT CONQUEST

WEATHER DELAYS DOUBLE-HEADER; PIRATES KEEP PACE WITH CUBS

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, Jr.
Associated Press Sports Writer.

Chicago's home loving Cubs were credited with a first down today in the drive toward their goal of six straight victories over the league-leading New York Giants and a real place in the National league pennant picture.

The Cubs weathered the difficulties of a rainy day, Carl Hubbell's pitching and what power the Giants' bats could muster to win the opener 2 to 0 yesterday. It started out to be a double-header but after delays that totaled more than two hours had kept a crowd of 20,000 hanging around until six o'clock to see the finish of one contest, the second was postponed, making a bargain bill today with another to follow tomorrow.

So far as the Giants were concerned the whole program was a washout. Their margin over the Cubs and the Pittsburgh Pirates, who also won a game, was reduced to 6 1-2 games and while they still can clinch the pennant with only nine more victories in 17 games, even if the Cubs and Pirates should win all they have left, they would be ahead of Chicago by only a single percentage point in such an event.

Pirates Keep Step.

Pittsburgh did its share toward climbing up on the Giants and holding a second place tie with the Cubs by turning back the Boston Braves 1 to 0 behind the four-hit pitching of Larry French. It was the Pirates' third straight shutout.

The St. Louis Cardinals also got the benefit of fine pitching and downed the Brooklyn Dodgers 4 to 1. Dizzy Dean gave only five hits for his 20th victory of the season while his young battery mate, Buddy Lewis, made three of the six blows off Owen Carroll, including a home run with one on.

In the American league, Cleveland and Washington were rained out and the New York Yankees and Detroit had an open date.

The Philadelphia Athletics and Chicago White Sox split their final doubleheader, Chicago winning the opener 3-2 despite Jimmie Foxx's 45th homer of the season and the A's taking the second game 4-2 by landing on Red Faber for a three-run rally in the sixth.

The Boston Red Sox finally halted the St. Louis Browns, 3 to 1.

Vines Says Rumors Of Professionalism "Mostly Lot Talk"

BY PAUL ZIMMERMAN
(Associated Press Sports Writer.)

PASADENA, Calif., Sept. 14.—(AP)—Ellsworth Vines, Jr., was home again today, bent on putting from his thoughts the disastrous season which saw him tumble from the tennis throne to which he rocketed a year ago.

The former world's champion, pursued by rumors of intentions to turn professional from Paris to Pasadena, returned to his mother's home here late yesterday.

"That's mostly a lot of talk," he answered to questions on the subject. "I haven't signed any contracts and right now I'm not ready to. It really wouldn't be a very auspicious start as a professional now, any way, would it?

"No, after the Pacific Southwest championships I want to take a long layoff, play a lot of golf, and forget about tennis. My plans for the winter are indefinite. What I hope to do is get a job. I'll be ready to start all over again next spring."

He will play here Saturday in the Pacific Southwest championships, where he started his climb by winning in 1930.

The former champion sought no sympathy on the subject of his dethroning. He offered no excuses and no alibis.

The fact his homecoming attracted no attention in sharp contrast to the riotous receptions received in 1931 and 1932, apparently did not disturb him.

It was just a simple, quiet return to mother, his brother and the neighbors.

BEAUTY CHATS -:- By Edna Kent Forbes

SALT AS A BEAUTIFIER.

Salt Rubs. . .

The mysterious but famous virtues of salt as a way to health and beauty are discussed by Miss Forbes today, who gives some suggestions about how to use this common kitchen product for beauty.

Every year, when a lot of us get away from town or back in the country, to the seashore, we realize how very valuable salt is as a beautifier. It is not only the exercise of salt water swimming but the actual contact of salt against the skin, into the pores, which is of benefit. And it does certainly clear the skin of any amount of ugly blotches.

Keep up these valuable salt treatments when you are at home. Wash your face with warm water and rinse off any soap you may have used. Be sure the skin is wet, either with hot or cold water, it does not matter. Now take a handful of table salt, and run it over the face, especially around the cleft of the chin, and around the nostrils—where blackheads most easily form, and around the jaw, where they also form. And under the chin, which needs constant astringent treatment after the age of 30. Rub in the salt, which very quickly melts, and then rinse off with clear water. This is more astringent if used with cold water, but if you have pimples or blackheads, more effective if used with hot water, which opens the pores.

A salt rub is grand for the arms and chest. Do it just like the face. In fact, if you can afford it, rub your whole body with dry salt, after you have had a bath. The friction is grand for the skin. Then rinse off. And it gives your back the most lovely complexion, only you'll not be able to reach around to your shoulders without some difficulty.

I don't advise salt for the hair. Salt water occasionally is all right, but for some reason, too much salt water seems bad for the hair.

Incidentally, soaking the feet in salt water which is quite hot is just the most wonderful treatment you could give them. It takes out aches and pains and makes them feel marvellous. Afterwards, thrust them in slippers without heels, and rest them, before you put on shoes.

Mrs. L. M. D.—A skin that is very oily shows there is poor elimination through the normal channels, and the skin is being overworked to keep the system cleared. After a time the pores become enlarged and continue to secrete abnormally. Clear your system and do not overtax the digestion, also go on a cleansing diet of fruit and vegetables, whilie you try to shring the pores by douching the skin with very cold water as a last rinse after bathing with warm water, or after a massage. A mild astringent given the skin several times a week will be helpful also, and among the best of these is plain witch hazel or a few drops of tincture of benzoin in about a pint of water.

F. L. N.—Search for the cause of the unpleasant breath as deodorants are only for temporary relief. Any throat or head trouble will cause the trouble, and so will a poor digestion. Buttermilk acts as a mild bleach for the skin, and so do some of the vegetable juices, such as cucumber or tomato.

L. M.—Better use a safety razor to keep the armpits cleared instead of using a depilatory. There will not be any unpleasant effect after shaving, while the depilatories leave the skin sore. Shaving also is the really clean method, which alone would make it preferable to rotting off the hair with a depilatory.

Spot in fair demand; prices sixteen points higher; quotations in pence: American strict good middling 6.24; good middling 5.40; strict middling 4.85; middling 5.49; strict low middling 5.34; low middling 5.14; strict good ordinary 4.94; good ordinary 4.64. Futures closed steady. Oct. 5.35; Dec. 5.37; Jan. 5.39; March 5.44; May 5.48; July 5.52.

New York Cotton Higher.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—(AP)—Cotton opened firm, 15-24 higher on active general buying, higher cables, the advance in foreign exchange and the active dry goods market. Oct. 9.30; Dec. 9.53; Jan. 9.65; March 9.88; May 10.07; July 10.18.

The opening advance met realising and Southern selling but offerings were absorbed on setbacks of a few points and the market was firm later on continued general buying. This again included buying by mills following increased sales of goods, while there was also some buying of foreign account. December contracts sold up to 9.65 on active months were selling about 25 to 28 points net higher around 10:40 o'clock. Liverpool cables reported a steady market.

Trading continued active and the market advanced on a further broadening of commission house demand, covering and trade buying on reports of a continued active demand for goods this morning. There was active selling of October and buying of May at a difference of about 65 points which was rumored to be connected with operations in seed loan or cotton option contracts. December sold up to 9.67 with the general list showing net gains of about 26 to 31 points. Buying tapered off somewhat at this figure and the market at midday showed reactions of 6 to 10 points from mile best.

Futures closed barely steady, 16-21 higher. Spot steady, middling 9.55.

New Orleans Cotton Firm.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 14.—(AP)—Cotton opened firm and fairly active today. Cables were mixed as good as did sterling was firm and New York made a full opening response to the advance of yesterday. First traders here showed gains of five to six points and prices improved further after the start on a firm opening in stocks and due to further inflation talk. October advanced to 9.38 and December to 9.56, or 8 to 9 points up net.

Later in the first hour the market reacted on realizing, October declining to 9.27 and December to 9.50, off 6 points from the early peaks but still 2 to 3 points above yesterday's close. Subsequently, however, one to two points of the reaction were recovered.

The market ruled firm in fairly active trading during the morning. Advances in stocks and grains and an enlarged trade demand, coupled with covering by shorts, sent October to 9.40 and December to 9.63, or 15 to 16 points above yesterday's close. Around midsession prices eased 2 to 4 points on a little profit-taking but the undertone continued steady.

Wheat Rallies at Close.

CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—(AP)—Sufficient selling pressure to wipe out early gains in wheat prices developed late today, but rallies ensued at the finish.

The late selling was attributed largely to sources northwest, and appeared to result from hedging against purchases of rural holdings in that section. Something of an offset was keen demand from eastern mills, 550,000 bushels being taken by one eastern milling interest alone.

Wheat closed unsettled, 1-8 to 1-2 above yesterday's finish, corn unchanged to 1-4 lower, oats unchanged to 3-8 up, and provisions at 10 to 35 cents advance.

Record Shot Made In "Scarface" Film

One of the longest photographic "shots" on record was made in the filming of the United Artists film "Scarface," the Howard Hughes production at the Ideal theatre Sunday.

Here a scene 400 feet in length, with cameras swinging from one setting to another over a space of four minutes, was obtained by mechanical means. It is one of the most extraordinary technical effects ever shown on the screen.

STOCK MARKET IN NOTICEABLE RALLY THURSDAY TRADING

EARLY GAINS REDUCED BUT PRICES MAINTAINED FIRM UNDERTONE

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—(AP)—Spurred by a revival of inflationary psychology, stocks galloped gaily into higher territory today and displayed indications of resuming the recent advance. The forward movement met some resistance, however, although mining issues and some specialties maintained a rather buoyant tone. The close was firm. Approximately 2,900,000 shares changed hands.

BY VICTOR EUBANK
Associated Press Financial Writer

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—(AP)—The stock market's recently budding firmness blossomed into a more noticeable rally today and activity expanded with the advance.

Early gains of 1 to 3 or more points were pared by subsequent profit-taking, but prices maintained a firm undertone and trading was much duller on reactions than on the frequent upward flurries. Wheat at Chicago began the day strongly, wilted a bit when Winnipeg price pegs were withdrawn, but rallied again. Cotton improved a dollar or so a bale.

Group activity in stocks centered first with the industrials, which did most of the early rising. Utilities, with few exceptions, were little better than steady and strikingly inactive. Rails came forward as the market turned into the afternoon dealings. Repeal issues looked vigorous, gains of 2 to 5 appearing for National Distiller, American Commercial, U. S. Industrial, Commercial Solvents and Owens-Illinois. Homestake, in the mining group, glistened with a 17 point jump, but its neighbors, Alaska Juneau, McIntyre and U. S. Smelting were less ambitious. Chrysler and General Motors both reached new highs in active trading. U. S. Steel was rather slow, but Westinghouse, Allied Chemical, Johns-Manville, Case, Deere, Harvester, New York Central, Union Pacific and Santa Fe improved 1 to 3 or thereabouts. American Telephone made up its $2.25 dividend with something to spare. Amusements issues strengthened.

Curb In Rally.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—(AP)—The curb market's recent advance broadened into a more respectable rally today as traders returned from their half holiday in a rather enthusiastic frame of mind.

All groups except the utilities enjoyed a broader market, and gains of a point or more were well sprinkled through the industrial division. Light and power shares were very listless, moving narrowly.

Repeal stocks took a spurt that brought advances of 1 to 2 points to Canadian Industrial Alcohol issues, Hiram Walker and Distillers Seagrams.

Miscellaneous stocks participating in the rise to the extent of major fractions to around 3 points included the inactive Quaker Oats, New Jersey Zinc, Celluloid, Pittsburgh Plate Glass, Standard Oil of Indiana and Aluminum of America, Electric Bond and Share scarcely changed from Wednesday's closing price. American Gas advanced slightly.

WILL ROGERS SAYS HE IS NOT TAKING MARY OUT PICTURES

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 14.—(AP)—Will Rogers today pushed back his old grown felt, scratched his head and wondered, for publication at least, how the story got around that he was going to take his 17-year-old daughter, Mary, out of pictures.

He stated emphatically it was not so.

"It probably started," he said, "when Mary was mentioned as the one to play the girl in this new picture with me. She didn't play it. Her test was good and the director, James Cruze, said she could do it all right but he thought it wouldn't be fair to her or the picture to put her in. The part is bigger than the usual girl's part in my pictures and Mary hadn't had enough experience. I didn't think so and she didn't either.

"But Mary is going right ahead. She is studying now, taking some coaching in dramatics and music. They're pre-viewing that picture she was in tonight. I didn't call the house to tell her about it."

Rogers said he had no objection to Mary entering pictures.

New Rio Grande Flood Feared In Presidio Sector

PRESIDIO, Sept. 14.—(AP)—Presidio and the Presidio valley became alarmed today over a report from Chihuahua City, Mexico, that a new flood, the highest in half a century, was headed for the Rio Grande down the Conchos river.

The report advised that all residents of the lowlands be warned to seek refuge in higher places. The Rio Grande here is running bank full and is rising rapidly as a result of heavy rains in this vicinity the past three days.

The film is enacted principally by Paul Muni, who is starred, and Karen Morley, Osgood Perkins, Ann Dvorak and Boris Karloff. Others in the cast are George Raft, C. Henry Gordon, Purnell Pratt, Vincent Barnett, Ines Palange, Harry J. Vejar, Edwin Maxwell, and Tully Marshall.

Graves Is Named.

AUSTIN, Sept. 14.—(AP)—Governor Miriam A. Ferguson today announced the appointment of A. M. Graves of Clarksville to be a member of the Texas industrial accident board. He succeeds, H. T. Kimbro of Lubbock whose term has expired.

COLLECTIONS FROM AGRICULTURE LOANS REPORTED BE GOOD

FORT WORTH, Sept. 12.—(AP)—The regional agricultural credit corporation of Fort Worth, serving Texas, with branches at San Angelo and Houston has collected roughly a fifth of the $15,027,818 lent to farmers and live stock men since its organization last November, according to figures up to August 31.

Collections for September have been at a faster pace than for August, according to A. E. Thomas, vice president and general manager.

As of August 31 there had been 13,277 loans made, aggregating $15,027,818. Of this number 1,552 loans amounting to $3,034,431 had been paid. A number of loans have been paid before maturity.

Figures for three offices as of August 31 follow:

Fort Worth, 123 loans amounting to $461,528 paid up out of 6,631 loans aggregating $4,077,847; Houston, 1,178 loans amounting to $1,104,159 paid up, out of 5,408 loans aggregating $4,216,119; San Angelo, 251 loans amounting to $1,468,744 upaid up, out of 1,238 loans aggregating $6,733,852.

Collections so far in September have been accelerated because of the beginning of the cotton harvest. A number of the loans to livestock men already have been paid. No loans was made for more than a year and most of them fall due during the harvest season.

LONE STAR COMPANY TOLD TO CUT GATE RATES MANY CITIES

CORSICANA AMONG CITIES TO BENEFIT BY EIGHT CENT REDUCTION

AUSTIN, Sept. 13.—(AP)—The Texas railroad commission today ordered the Lone Star Gas Company to reduce its city gate rates at approximately 250 Texas cities and towns from 40 cents to 32 cents per 1,000 cubic feet.

Immediate criticism was leveled at the order in a statement, released here, by L. B. Denning, president of the Lone Star Gas Company, who gave notice the company would appeal the decision to the courts. It was likely the company would attempt an appeal to the federal court.

The commission estimated the reduction would result in an annual saving of approximately $1.400,000 to gas consumers on the Lone Star system, the figure being based on average consumption.

"The commission urgently recommends to the company and its subsidiaries that this saving be passed on immediately to the consumers served by it," the commission stated in a prepared statement.

"If this is done the commission believes that it will, to a very large extent, settle a long and bitter rate controversy that has been going on for years between the company and some of the towns in Central and Northern Texas served by it."

The commission stated it found the 32 cent rate to be fair and reasonable based on a rate valuation of $46,246,617. The company placed a valuation of approximately $72,000,000 on its properties for rate making purposes.

The order affects the city gate rate of some 250 Texas cities and towns, including Dallas, Fort Worth, Wichita Falls, Waco, Cleburne, Abilene, Corsicana Denison, Bonham, Greenville Denton, Hillsboro, McKinney, Sherman, Waxahachie, Arlington, Paris, Mexia, Colorado, Clarksville, Taylor, Terrell Gainesville, Eastland, Cisco. Georgetown, Sweetwater, Vernon, Snyder, Cameron, Chillicothe, Ferris, Albany, Ennis, Athens Baird Ballinger, Belton, Bryan, College Station Commerce, Cooper, Farmersville, Gatesville, Glenrose, Granbury, Henrietta, Alvarado, Forney, Hamilton, Hearne, Meridian McGregor, Honey Grove, Italy, Kaufman Kemp, Kerens, Lancaster, Marlin, Mart, Rockwall, Plano, Pilot Point, Rockdale, Rosebud Van Alstyne, Royse City, Strawn, Sulphur Springs, Teague, Whitewright, Wolfe City, Grand Prairie, Bowie, Bridgeport, Decatur and Whitesboro.

Used 1931 as Test Year.

Using 1931 as a test year, the commission said it found the revenues to be $9,301,862 and expenses $4,174,807. The annual depreciation was calculated at $968,066 on a 6 per cent sinking fund basis.

The commission disallowed the management fees of $95,062 paid to the Lone Star Gas Corporation, stating that such management fees were "a division of the profits."

"A charge of this nature would simply disguise an operating profit and cause it to appear as an operating expense," the commission stated.

The commission said it adopted the actual prices being paid by the Lone Star for pipe, an item that was hotly contested between the commission's appraisers and those for the company.

Minimum Return.

A minimum return of 6 per cent per annum was allowed the company, the commission stated.

The case was ordered kept open "for such further orders as may appear proper."

The commission's engineers and auditors spent approximately one year auditing and appraising the properties. Trial before an examiner extended through almost eight months. The transcript comprised approximately 12,000 pages and there were approximately 12,000 pages of exhibits.

Several cities on the Lone Star lines have passed ordinances reducing the city rates. The effectiveness of the ordinances have been held in abeyance pending decision on the gate rates by the commission. In many instances the company posted bond and continued to charge the old rate.

Denning said the order, if carried into effect, would mean either confiscation of the company's property or drastic reduction in service.

"In the interest of our customers and for the protection of the gas service they enjoy, the company will be compelled to incur the additional expense of presenting the case to the courts where an impartial hearing may be had unhampered by any previous political promises," Denning stated.

He said the valuation of the commission "violates practically every rule and principle of rate making."

CLASS C FOOTBALL DIVISION ORGANIZED WEDNESDAY NIGHT

MEETING OF COACHES AND SCHOOL OFFICIALS HELD HERE FOR PURPOSE

Permanent organization of a Class C football division, under the University of Texas Interscholastic League rules, was effected at a meeting of coaches and officials of schools in surrounding towns, at the Y. M. C. A., Wednesday night. Superintendent Red Willis, of Malakoff, called the meeting, and was elected permanent chairman.

Ten representatives from seven schools were present, and it is likely that a 10-team loop will result from the meeting. Among the teams with representatives present were Wortham, Trinidad, Mildred, Hubbard, Blooming Grove, and Malakoff.

The object of the organization of a class C conference is to protect smaller schools from the stronger teams that come under the classification of class B. Class C schools are designated as those with not over 150 high school enrollment. The division will have sixteen districts in the state. It was brought out that another object of the organization is to keep down the expenses of traveling to distant points in a large and unwieldly district.

It was decided that members canp lay not more than 10 games before the last Friday in November. To be recognized for the championship, a team will be required to play a minimum of four conference games, and where a school has alrady arranged its schedule, one game with a class B team will be counted in the class C percentage, if the coach designates that team at the time of his acceptance of the class C plan.

Other details, including the selection and fees of officials; the selection of a ball; expenses of carrying on the district's correspondence; buying a trophy; the date for the executive committee to recognize the champion; and numerous other matters were worked out.

The deadline for the championship game was set as not later than the last Friday in November.

NAVARRO COUNTY MAN BEEN GIVEN GENERAL PAROLE BY GOVERNOR

AUSTIN, Sept. 13.—(AP)—James C. Duke, 70, serving a sentence of 25 years for criminal assault, was given a general parole by Governor Miriam A. Ferguson today. He was convicted in Navarro county and had served 12 years and five months, including credits.

Duke, who has only one arm, has been caring for the flowers on the Wynne state farm.

Seven other convicts were extended clemency.

Roy Eurleson, Leon county, sentenced to two years for hog theft was granted a full pardon.

Conditional pardons were granted to:

John Hinton, Bowie county, violating liquor law, one year.

R. L. Hambrick, Baylor county, embezzlement, two years, convicted in February 1933.

John Hurst, Stonewall county, burglary, two years, convicted in November 1932.

Ruby Free, Brazos county, seduction, five years.

General paroles granted were:

PROMINENT DALLAS CLUB WOMAN SHOT TO DEATH TUESDAY

RELIEF RECIPIENT KILLS MRS. JULES CAHN AND THEN TAKES OWN LIFE

DALLAS, Sept. 12.—(AP)—A 68-year-old man shot and killed Mrs. Jules Cahn, club woman and social worker, at the office of the Jewish Social Relief Service Bureau, today then killed himself wth a bullet from the same pistol. No reason for his action was learned.

Identified from the relief rolls as Joe Zimmerman, the man entered the building and asked Mrs. Cahn, in an outer office, to see George A. Levy, executive director of the bureau.

When Mrs. Cahn rose to call Levy, the man fired three times.

"I didn't see him when he shot her," Levy said, "but upon hearing the reports I rushed out of my office in time to see him raise the pistol behind his coat and fire the bullet into his heart."

Mrs. Cahn ran a few feet across the office and fell to the floor. Levy said the man carried his coat in his hand and apparently had concealed a pistol under it.

Levy said Zimmerman had been out of work several years, during which time he frequently went to the bureau for aid. He added that the man had never threatened any one nor had complained of the assistance given him. He held no grudge against Mrs. Cahn, Levy said.

Levy expressed the opinion that the man became demented although it was apparent he had planned the act in advance.

TWO NEGROES ARE SENTENCED TO DEATH FOR MURDER OF GIRL

BLUIT AND THURMAN BURKLEY CHARGED WITH ATTACKING GIRL AND ESCORT

DALLAS, Sept. 12.—(AP)— Two negroes have been sentenced to die in the electric chair for the brutal murder of Miss Katheryn Prince, 21-year-old white woman, who was taken from her escort, attacked and shot the night of August 30, after parking in an automobile on a lonely country road east of Dallas.

Juries which deliberated less than five minutes in each case, convicted Bluit Burkley, 19, and Thurman Burkley, 18, negro brothers, of the crime. Their trials were run off swiftly yesterday, requiring about 12 hours for both. District Judge Grover Adams said he would pass formal sentence on the negroes later.

Bluit Burkley, tried first, surprised authorities by pleading not guilty to the murder charge and repudiating the confession he signed shortly after being arrested. He claimed it was obtained from him while he was afraid of mob violence. He tried to put the blame for the whole affair on his brother.

After pleading guilty, Thurman Burkley told of the crime. He said he and his brother were returning to their home near Pleasant Mound community when they passed the car in which Miss Prince and her escort, Mace Carver, 27, were seated. He said they held up the couple with a pistol and climbed in the car with them, leaving their own car on the road.

Thurman said he took Carver's watch and after driving some distance, stopped the car and forced Carver to accompany him into a patch of woods. The negro said he was nervous, gripping his pistol tightly, and while trying to decide what to do with Carver, the weapon accidentally fired twice. Thurman said he ran, without waiting to see what had happened to Carver.

Bluit and he then took the woman into a field, Thurman said. Thurman told of leaving his brother alone with the woman and returning to the car. Se said he did not hear the shots which killed Miss Prince. Bluit's story coincided with that of his brother, except that he claimed Thurman had shot the girl, too. He said he heard the shots that wounded Carver.

Carver was found critically wounded where he had been shot down. Since then he has been fighting for his life in a Dallas hospital. Physicians doubt whether he will recover.

MALAKOFF MAN ASKS DAMAGES AS RESULT RAID BY OFFICERS

ATHENS, Sept. 13.—M. T. Dodd, Malakoff roadside stand operator, has filed a suit in the Henderson county court against officers and their bondsmen for $900. damages as a result of a raid by the officers, Sept. 5, in the recent liquor drive. The petition states that sum is sought as compensation for 5,000 empty bottles which were destroyed by the officers and for damages done to his premises as the result of the action of the officers in smashing the bottles on his property.

The bottles were valued at $300. while the sum of $600. is asked for compensation for the damages to his premises.

Defendants mentioned in the law suit are Constable T. H. Moseley, Constable Wade Shultz, County Attorney A. D. Boyd, Special Ranger X. L. Dodson, Dave Drennan, city marshall at Mabank, S. L. Jarvis, Kaufman county constable and the sureties on the bonds of Moseley, Shultz and Boyd.

in an electrifying 32, three under par. Chipping and putting with deadly accuracy, Noyes actually regained the lead, only to have Marston square the match again with his sixth birdie, on the 7th. Both cracked par for the round with 70's.

Munger Starts Good.

The well-built, bespectacled Texas youngster, Jack Munger, played Jack Westland, slim Chicagoan in the upper half match and went one up forthwith by annexing the first hole. Munger ran down a 15-foot sidehill putt for a birdie three while Jack took a four.

Westland and Munger both were trapped on the second hole, but the Chicagoan made the better recovery and holed a three-footer for a winning three, squaring the match.

Mungers third shot on the long third hole nearly hit the pin. The ball stopped only a foot away and the birdie four was a winner for the Texan.

Westland came back to square matters on the fourth when Munger three-putted.

Westland overshot the green on the short fifth and took a four to Munger's three.

Munger lashed two fine shots close to the sixth green, chipped his third within four feet and holed out for a birdie four to become two up on Westland. The Texan was badly bunkered off the next tee, however, and wound up with a six to Westland's winning four.

Both in Trouble.

Westland and Munger were both in trouble on the eighth and ninth holes. They halved each with fives. Westland had a putt of barely a foot to win the ninth and square the match, but jabbed at the ball. It hit the side of the cup and hopped out. This left Munger one up:

Morning round:

Westland, out .....435 445 555—40
Munger, out .....344 534 655—39

Westland and Munger took a turn at exploding a few fireworks when they halved the tenth with birdies. Chicago Jack sank a 20-footer, then Texas Jack rolled in a putt from eight feet. They halved the next in par fours.

Westland and Munger halved the short 12th in par and the latter remained one up.

Munger clung to his one-hole lead through the 15th. As the Texas youth and Westland halved successive holes, they were each one under par for the first six holes of the inward nine.

After an uneventful half on the 13th Munger made fine recoveries on the next two holes to hold his thin margin. The youngster cleared an obstructing tree with a high No. 3 iron shot on the 14th to reach the green, and chipped "dead" on the 15th, where Westland narrowly missed a 20-foot putt fr a birdie.

The two Jacks halved another one with threes on the short 16th.

Westland, recovering twice from the side of bunkers, chipped on and holed a 14-foot putt for his five and a half on the 17th hole. Munger was well on but took two putts.

Westland's second shot on the 18th was bunkered, just off the green. He blazed on, 12 feet from the cup, but was stymied when Munger putted to within two inches of the hole. The Chicagoan failed to get around his opponent's ball and carded a five, going two down.

recognition will be extended only to a Cuban government able to maintain peace.

Posters throughout Havana attacked American policies and "Yankee imperialism."

In the National hotel, whose employes quit after receiving threats of harm, the officers continued sweeping floors, making beds, operating elevators and otherwise serving themselves while, kept virtual prisoners by soldiers, they held out against Grau San Martin and for the return of De Cespedes.

In Cristo, a mining town near Santiago, a number of Americans were prevented from leaving by striking manganese miners. The American authorities were advised that a resumption of serious labor troubles was probable in Santiago.

WARM SESSION

ing and wrestling laws also were seen as probable subjects for legislative action.

The bonds will be sold to match money sent to Texas by the federal government to relieve tht destitute unemployed. It is within the discretion of the legislature to set the amount that shall be issued and the mode of expenditure.

Agitate Bond Board.

There was agitation for establishment of a bond sale board whose duty it would be to sell the bonds as needed, thereby eliminating the necessity of a session of the lawmakers to approve each issue.

Both state and federal relief in Texas is administered by the Texas rehabilitation and relief commission with Lawrence Westbrook as executive. It was not certain if this agency would continue to function or another plan be substituted.

The legislature also will be called on to devise a plan to provide revenue for retiring the bonds. Passage of a sales tax was being advanced by a house group to care for sinking fund requirements. The sales tax was defeated overwhelmingly in the regular session.

A strong effort was made in the closing days of the regular session to suspend or modify the anti-trust laws, but it was defeated.

A sharp watch on anti-trust legislation will be kept by James V. Allred, attorney general, who has filed suit in Travis county district court against 15 oil companies and oil associations chargng them with violating the laws against trusts and monopolies. The case has been set for trial October 2 but probably will be postponed.

The regular session enacted a law regulating the sale of beer and wine but some slight changes may be made.

Rev. Jasper N. Reed, representative from Texarkana, said he favored lowering the tax on the brew to eliminate bootlegging. Reed also was fearful that the heavy sales and occupation taxes levied by Texas would work a hardship on border cities, such as Texarkana, because of lower levies in other states.

The state beer tax is $1.50 per barrel and heavy taxes also were exacted from manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers.

Beer Legal Tomorrow.

Beer sales will become legal in Texas at midnight tonight.

The mounting state deficit was expected to prove a bar to reinstatement of state employes salaries. At the regular session they were reduced between 25 and 33 per cent.

Considerable interest was manifested by members in the operation of the boxin and wrestling laws which became effective September 1, and its supervision by Jack Flynn, state labor commissioner. A Houston promoter succeeded Tuesday in having District Judge W. F. Robertson grant a mandamus to compel Flynn to issue him a license which had been refused by Flynn on the grounds two promoters licenses already had been approved for that city.

It was predicted the legislature might either repeal the law or vest its supervision in a commission.

RECOVERY

ulation of federal recovery efforts.

In this higher-geared program for lifting economic levels, particularly in the way of restoring commodity prices, the President was represented as confident that the banks, with government backing, would supply much of the credit need.

What further steps Mr. Roosevelt planned in this direction were not revealed, but in his hands were the tremendous powers over national money and credit voted by the last congress. Included was a broad inflationary authority.

Use of inflation moves have been urged repeatedly in recent days by Southern leaders. But receiving attention in official quarters here was Johnson's statement during New York's NRA rally that the government would use its full powers under the federal reserve and emergency banking acts to force credit into rehabilitated industries. The inflation powers were contained in the recovery law.

May Employ Price Fixing.

There was apparent a determination of the administration to employ price-fixing if necessary to stabilize the oil industry. President Roosevelt approved a revision of the oil code authorizing this step after a conference with Secretary Ickes yesterday in which the old administration told of reports of a price war in California.

"I am not prepared to express any opinion except to say that I hope that if any oil interests involved in price wars, that are not violating the petroleum code that only a few days ago they all subscribed to," Ickes said.

The oil planning and coordinating committee means that before it a notice from Walter Rogers, president of the Texas company, that his organization would not furnish the data requested by the committee.

This was a direct challenge to the authority given the committee in the oil charter. For violations of the code, penalties of $500 a day are fixed.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—(AP)—General Hugh S. Johnson, NRA administrator, predicts prompt action by the government to release the springs of credit to help along the recovery drive.

In a speech last night, he said this can be done "by creating confidence, by releasing restrictions requiring a too great liquidity of banks, and, if necessary, by direct governmental interposition (through the powers of the Federal Reserve and the emergency banking act) to extend credit on capital loans and on good commercial risks in cases where the existing banking system has been unable or unwilling, through timidity or otherwise, to perform its normal function."

Of bankers, he had this to say: "There is no use in haranguing our banker friends about extending commercial loans where they do not think it wise. They move in a special atmosphere, and they do have heavy responsibilities. It is perhaps unkind to say that in the last few years some of them have generally been wrong. Perhaps they are right this time, but if somehow we could persuade them in proper cases to exercise the normal functions of commercial banking, even if the interest rate is very low, it would greatly aid the President's program."
